STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the four quadrennia since, and for 1959. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

†Partial Report. §Some Conferences reported Number of Subdivisions of the main body."Organized Churches" replaces "Preaching Places."
*Inserted from Jurisdictional Recapitulation Tables.

NOTE: (a) By action of the 1956 General Conference line 6 above is new. Previously this figure was entered in line 5, hence the apparent difference,
(b) Fifteen Conferences where Associate Pastors are employed, still neglect to report separately the amount "paid Associate-Pastor(s)," entering the sum in the column "Paid Pastor."

OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

OF THE

JUDICIAL COUNCIL

OF

Numbers 131-156

In Re: Whether a Minister on Missionary Service Shall Be Counted on the Mission Field or at His Annual Conference for Representation at the General Conference

DIGEST OF DECISION

A missionary minister serving on the field shall be counted in the Annual Conference of which he is a member for General Conference representation.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The General Conference of 1956 received and adopted report No. 26 of the Committee of Conferences (see page 552 of the 1956 Daily Christian Advocate) stating that "Missionary ministers who so desire may maintain membership without annuity claim in the Annual Conference from which they are sent, while at the same time exercising active relationships to the Annual Conference on the field during the periods they are in missionary service."

Reference was made to this provision in a discussion on the floor of the General Conference relating to the present ratio of representation and to the possibility of more delegates being elected to the next General Conference than the constitutional maximum of 800. The question of how "active relationships" is to be construed gave rise to the question "whether a minister on missionary service shall be counted on the mission field or at his Annual Conference for representation at the General Conference." In the absence of a ruling from the chair, it was moved that this question be referred to the Judicial Council for decision. (See 1956 Daily Christian Advocate, page 616.) (While, later in the session, the General Conference reconsidered its action adopting Report No. 26 of the Committee on Conferences and referred that Report to the Study Commission On Methodism Overseas (Daily Christian Advocate, pages 620-621), its action referring this question to the Judicial Council was not reconsidered.)

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine questions submitted to it by the General Conference for declaratory decisions under subdivision 5, Article II of Division IV of the Constitution, Par. 43 of the 1952 Discipline. (See Decision No. 88 of the Judicial Council.)

If the reconsideration and referral of Report No. 26 of the Committee on Conferences had made the question referred to the Judicial Council a moot and hypothetical question, the Council should refuse jurisdiction. It stands, however, as a valid question. While it was prompted by one of the provisions in the proposed legislation of said Report No. 26, it came out of the discussion of the larger question of General Conference representation and where a minister on missionary service should be counted for such representation. It is not a hypothetical question but one constantly involved in the working out of the relationships of ministers who serve in areas other than those represented by their own Annual Conferences. The question is properly before the Judicial Council. We, therefore, assume jurisdiction.

Analysis

Par. 21 of the 1952 Discipline reads in part as follows:

"The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. . . ."

The ratio of representation of an Annual Conference in the General Conference is specifically defined in Par. 501 of the 1952 Discipline as follows:

"The General Conference shall be composed of one ministerial member for every seventy ministerial members of each Annual Conference and one additional member for a majority fraction thereof and an equal number of lay members. . . ."

Every minister in the traveling ministry of The Methodist Church must hold membership in one Annual Conference and one only. It is therefore clear that he may be counted for General Conference representation only in the Annual Conference of which he is a member, otherwise conditions would obtain by which an Annual Conference might violate the ratio of representation for General Conference as determined by the General Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a minister on missionary service shall be counted at the Annual Conference of which he is a member for representation at the General Conference.

In Re: May a Provisional Annual Conference Vote on the Constitutional Amendments Handed Down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference?

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Provisional Annual Conference may not vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 7, 1956, the Council of Bishops voted to request from the Judicial Council a declaratory decision as to whether or not a Provisional Annual Conference may vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference. This action was communicated to the Judicial Council by a letter of date, May 9, 1956, addressed to the Judicial Council by the Council of Bishops.

Jurisdiction

Under paragraph 914, sub-section (1) of the 1952 Discipline, the request of the Council of Bishops for a declaratory decision is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Paragraph 10, sub-paragraphs 1 and 2, Section III, Division Two, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, 1952 Discipline, provides as follows:

"Sec. III. Amendments

"10. 1. Amendments to the Constitution may originate in either the General Conference or an Annual Conference.

"2. Amendments to the Constitution shall be made upon a two-thirds majority of the General Conference present and voting and a two-thirds majority of all the members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting, except in the case of the first Restrictive Rule, which shall require a three-fourths majority of all the members of the Annual Conference present and voting. The vote, after being completed, shall be canvassed by the Council of Bishops, and the amendment voted upon shall become effective upon their announcement of its having received the required majority."

Paragraph 4, sub-paragraph 4, Division Two, of the Constitution, 1952 Discipline provides:

"There shall be Annual Conferences as the fundamental bodies in the Church with such powers, duties and privileges as are hereinafter set forth."

Paragraph 22, Article II, Section VII, Division Two of the Constitution, 1952 Discipline, provides:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments. . . ."

The only references made to Provisional Annual Conferences in the Constitution of The Methodist Church are the following:

By an amendment effective 1956, paragraph 7 of the 1952 Discipline, Article III, Section I, Division Two, was amended and provides that the General Conference shall fix the ratio of representation in the General, Jurisdictional and Central Conferences from Provisional Annual Conferences as well as from Annual Conferences upon the same basis.

Paragraph 13 of the 1952 Discipline, Article III, Section IV, Division Two, of the Constitution, provides that the General Conference shall fix the basis of representation in the Jurisdictional Conferences provided that the Jurisdictional Conference shall be composed of an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates, the ministerial to be elected by the ministerial members of the Annual Conferences and the Provisional Annual Conferences and the lay delegates by the lay members.

Paragraph 17 of the 1952 Discipline, Article II, Section V, Division Two provides that:

> "The Central Conferences shall be composed of as many delegates as shall be determined by a basis established by the General Conference. The delegates shall be ministerial and lay in equal numbers, the ministerial delegates to be elected by the ministerial members and lay delegates to be elected by the lay members of the Annual Conferences or the Provisional Annual Conferences."

By an amendment effective 1956, paragraph 24 of the 1952 Discipline, Article IV, Section VII, Division Two, provides that the ministerial delegates to the General Conference and to the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences shall be elected by the ministerial members of the Annual Conference or the Provisional Conference (the amendment at this point omits the word "Annual") provided such delegates have been traveling preachers in the constituent churches forming the union or in The Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election and are in full connection with the Annual Conference or the Provisional Annual Conference electing them when elected and at the time of the holding of the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences.

It will be noted that the foregoing references to Provisional Annual Conferences relate to the manner in which such Provisional Annual Conferences may elect, send delegates to and be represented in the General, Jurisdictional and Central Conferences and that in none of these references is there any provision by which the right to vote on all constitutional amendments reserved to the Annual Conference is granted to the Provisional Annual Conference.

A further reference to Provisional Annual Conferences is found in paragraph 8 of the 1952 Discipline, subdivision 3 of the Article IV, Section I, Division Two of the Constitution, which provides that the General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority "to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences and Missions" since Mission Conferences referred to therein are called Provisional Annual Conferences in the body of the Discipline. Under this power paragraph 607 of the 1952 Discipline provides that "A Provisional Annual Conference is authorized to exercise the powers of an Annual Conference subject to the approval of the presiding Bishop." The authority given the General Conference by this provision of the Constitution does not grant the General Conference the right to fix powers of Provisional Annual Conferences which are in contravention of other express provisions of the Constitution and accordingly Provisional Annual Conferences cannot, under the provisions of paragraph 607, exercise the right to vote on constitutional amendments, which right is specifically reserved to the Annual Conference by the Constitution.

It is the duty of judicial bodies in determining rights under constitutions to determine the intention of the makers or framers of the Constitution. If there are apparent conflicts, it is the duty of judicial bodies to harmonize them if this can be reasonably done without distorting the meaning of any provision so as to give effect to every portion of the instrument under consideration. A judicial body may not override a plain constitutional provision however objectionable it may seem to the parties interested. Where the language is plain and unambiguous, no room is left for construction.

It is clear from the Constitution that there is a difference between an Annual Conference and a Provisional Annual Conference. The provisions of the Constitution relating to the Annual Conference, the manner in which amendments to the Constitution may be made and the distinct provision that the Annual Conference shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments are clear and unambiguous.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a Provisional Annual Conference may not vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference.

In Re: The Effective Date of Retirement in the Case of Voluntary Retirement of Ministers

DIGEST OF CASE

The effective date of the retirement of a minister who voluntarily retires is the date of the adjournment of the Annual Conference which approved his retirement.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1956 session of the Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church at Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, June 6 to 10, 1956, Paragraph 6 of the Standing Order No. 10 of the Conference was adopted as follows:

"When recommending the voluntary retirement of any minister to the Annual Conference, the Committee on Conference Relations should indicate after consultation with the minister concerned the effective date of retirement, such as June 30, or December 31. (This is subject to the declaratory decision of the Judicial Council.)"

Pursuant to the adoption of the foregoing order, the secretary of the Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church transmitted to the Judicial Council a request for a declaratory decision on whether or not the action of the Minnesota Annual Conference quoted above is in keeping with the law of the Church.

Jurisdiction

This question here presented comes before the Judicial Council in keeping with the provisions of Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline and we, therefore, assume jurisdiction.

Analysis

The Annual Conference is the basic body of The Methodist Church (The Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Two, Section VII, Article II, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline) and as such there is reserved to it "all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members."

A Methodist minister in full connection is a member of an Annual Conference. At every session of his Annual Conference the relationship of a minister to that Annual Conference is fixed for the ensuing year.

It will be noted that it has become the policy of The Methodist Church, based upon long standing custom, if not by positive legislation of the Church, that the establishment of the relationships of the ministers of the Conference is fixed on an annual basis. The very term "Annual" Conference indicates that the work of the Church and of the ministers proceeds upon an annual basis.

Furthermore, as required by Paragraph 647 of the 1952 Discipline, the Committee on Conference Relations every year examines into the reports to the Annual Conference "regarding the standing of all ministers in the Conference" and upon this report when acted upon, the Conference fixes and establishes the relationships of its ministerial members for the ensuing year.

In cases where a minister seeks voluntary retirement, the Committee on Conference Relations receives his request, makes its report to the Conference and when Question No. 38 is called, as provided for in Paragraph 651 of the 1952 Discipline, the Conference acts upon such request and if the minister's request for retirement is acted upon favorably, it is so noted and the relationship of the minister for the ensuing year is thus determined. (See Paragraphs 367, 368, 369 and 370 of the 1952 Discipline.)

The Conference year of an Annual Conference ends upon the adjournment of the Annual Conference and the new year of that Conference begins immediately following adjournment. It should be noted that the Conference has no further opportunity to inquire into the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members until the next session of the Annual Conference is held and therefore has no opportunity to change the relationship of the individual ministers to the Conference until the next session of the Annual Conference.

Therefore the relationship of every minister to his Annual Conference is fixed and determined by the annual session of said Conference and the effective date of his relationship to the Annual Conference for the ensuing year is the date of the adjournment of his Conference.

Decision

The effective date of the retirement of a minister who seeks voluntary retirement from active service in his Annual Conference is the date of the adjournment of that session of his Annual Conference at which his request for retirement is approved and the Annual Conference can fix no other date.

It necessarily follows that the action taken by the 1956 session of the Minnesota Annual Conference and referred to above is not in keeping with the law of The Methodist Church.

In Re: Interpretation of Amendment to Paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline Providing a Ritual for Admission on Trial

DIGEST OF DECISION

The words "formal vote of the Conference" as used in Paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline, and in the amendment thereto made by the General Conference of 1956 were intended to mean the formal vote of the ministers of the Conference entitled to vote under the Constitution on the question before the Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The President of the Judicial Council on June 20, 1956, received the following copy of a resolution from Rev. Mr. John V. Leach:

"WHEREAS, paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church was amended by the 1956 General Conference to include a ritual for 'Admission on Trial,' and

"WHEREAS, the said ritual calls for a vote of the entire membership of the Annual Conference on the acceptability of candidates for admission on trial, and

"WHEREAS, The Constitution of The Methodist Church, paragraph 22, Article II, specifically states that 'the lay members (of the Annual Conference) may not vote on matters of ordination, character and conference relations of ministers.'

"THEREFORE, the South Dakota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church respectfully requests the Judicial Council to rule on the query whether the said amendment to the Discipline is in contravention of the Constitution of The Methodist Church.

"Done at Huron, South Dakota, this eighth day of June, 1956.

(signed) Edwin Edgar Voight
Bishop
(signed) John V. Leach
Secretary"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council takes jurisdiction of the question herein presented under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

While the request of the South Dakota Annual Conference asks for a ruling as to whether or not the ritual for "Admission On Trial" as approved by the General Conference of 1956 contravenes the Constitution of The Methodist Church, the import of the query indicates that the concern is in the interpretation of the phrase "after this the formal vote of the Conference on admitting the candidates to membership on trial shall be taken." (See 1956 Daily Christian Advocate, page 437.)

Attention is called to the fact that in the petition the petitioner states "the said ritual calls for a vote of the entire membership of the Annual Conference." This statement is in error.

The language of the report adopted by the General Conference, as indicated above, reveals that the committee reporting and the General Conference adopting this ritual employed the same language used in paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline relating to the ritual "for the admission of candidates to full membership in an Annual Conference."

It is the opinion of this Judicial Council, and we so hold, that there is no constitutional question involved in the question submitted to us as assumed by the petitioner; rather, it is our opinion that the only question presented by the petitioner involves an interpretation of the words "formal vote of the Conference." Therefore, we are of the opinion, and so hold, that the only thing necessary to a determination of this matter is to give a judicial interpretation of the intended meaning of the words quoted above. In this connection we point out that in various other places in the Discipline similar words are used. (See Paragraphs 367, 369, 377 of the 1952 Discipline.)

It is apparent, when the paragraphs of the Discipline referred to in this petition and the other paragraphs referred to by numbers above are read in connection with the constitutional provisions, that it was the intention of the General Conference in using such words to refer to that vote which could constitutionally be taken in such instances, namely, the vote of the ministerial members only of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council that in the 1956 Amendment to Paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline when reference is made to "the formal vote of the Conference" this, in effect, means the formal vote of the ministerial members of the Annual Conference who may be entitled to vote under the constitution on the question before the Conference.

October 24, 1956

Dissenting Opinion

Respectfully I must disagree with the majority of my brethren as to the Judicial Council's jurisdiction to determine the query submitted to us by the South Dakota Annual Conference. The majority say the "import of the query" is not the constitutionality of the General Conference action. That seems to me to flv in the face of the plain language of the South Dakota Annual Conference resolution, where, after referring to Paragraph 22, Artilcle II of the Constitution of The Methodist Church we are requested "to rule on the query whether the said amendment is in contravention of the Constitution of The Methodist Church." I do not believe that we should require extreme precision of expression for presentation of questions to us, but when one is clearly expressed I do not believe that we should say it is other than it says it is. Hence, the resolution to me raises a constitutional question. The first point for decision, then, is our jurisdiction.

Our only express right to rule on the constitutionality of acts of the General Conference is found in Division Four, Paragraph 43, Article II, of the Constitution and Paragraph 904.1 of the Discipline enacted pursuant thereto. The relevant language in each is:

"* * * determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops, or one-fifth of the members of the General Conference * * *"

We unanimously held in Decision Number 37 that we had no jurisdiction to pass on the constitutionality of a General Conference Act at the initiative of an Annual Conference under the Constitutional provision quoted above or under Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline. I am aware that the General Conference in 1952 amended that Paragraph 914 by listing the bodies that could seek a "declaratory decision" and that an Annual Conference is one of the bodies listed. Our former Decision was based squarely on "the Constitution, Paragraph 43, Article II, Section 1," and only in a passing manner did it mention there was an authority in the then Paragraph 914 for such appeals from the Annual Conference. Too, no amendment was made as to the types of questions on which such decisions could be sought. Those were in the 1944 and the 1952 Discipline.

"When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council, * * * shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline * * *"

For these reasons, our Decision Number 37 is as valid now as when handed down and should be followed.

Apart from our previous decision its conclusion seems to me to be the only proper one now. Paragraph 915 nowhere uses the word "constitutionality" where as Paragraphs 904 and 905 do with reference to our having such jurisdiction. The key jurisdictional granting language of Paragraph 914 is "subject to more than one interpretation" and "of doubtful meaning or application," and that rather clearly seems to me to only contemplate decisions on the meaning of duplications or ambiguous legislation.

In arriving at a proper construction of Paragraph 914 we must keep before us that the Paragraph itself requires the Judicial Council to "* * * determine from the facts in connection with each such petition whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and determine the same." That caveat indicates that we are to examine carefully the jurisdictional aspect of any petition seeking a declaratory decision and seems to negate our implying jurisdiction.

In addition, constitutional questions should not be lightly raised or lightly decided because of their far-reaching effect and importance. Judicial bodies generally do not decide them unless absolutely necessary, and do not, and should not, where their jurisdiction to do so is created by legislation, imply that power. I cannot believe the 1952 General Conference intended us to entertain constitutional questions on the petition of any of the numerous bodies listed in Paragraph 914, particularly when it did not expressly say so. As a practical matter, if we did accept such petitions from the first seven groups enumerated in Paragraph 914, let alone each Annual Conference, either this Council's personnel would have to be greatly expanded or its decisions greatly delayed.

In writing this I realize the Annual Conference is "the basic body in the church" and as such has many rights. It does not, though, have rights that by the Constitution are delegated to the General Conference. By Division Two, Section I, Article IV 7 of the Constitution the General Conference has the power "To provide a judicial System and a method of judicial procedure for the church * * *" It follows that in construing the disciplinary provisions here involved an Annual Conference has the same status as any other body in the church listed.

For the reasons above I am of the opinion the Judicial Council does not have the jurisdiction to determine the constitutionality of an action of the General Conference at the request of an Annual Conference.

Donald A. Odell and A. Wesley Pugh concur in this Dissenting Opinion.

In Re: The Acceptance by a Board of Trustees of an Annual Conference or Other Group or Organization Within an Annual Conference of Title to Real Estate Which Does not Contain the Trust Clause as Contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline

DIGEST OF DECISION

Annual Conference Boards of Trustees or other Annual Conference organizations may legally receive title to real estate which does not contain the "trust clause" as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following communication was received by the Secretary of the Judicial Council:

"Enclosed you will find motion coming from our Louisville Annual Conference dated June 3-6 pertaining to some property that had been received without the Trust Clause.

RESOLUTION OF THE LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE

"Whereas there have been many questions raised, both publicly and privately, as to the validity of the title to the Methodist House near Franklin, Kentucky, in the Louisville Conference, and whereas no satisfactory answer has yet been given,

"THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

"That the Louisville Annual Conference in session at Bowling Green, Kentucky, June 3-6, 1956, request the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to give a declaratory judgment or decision as to whether a Board of Trustees or any other group or organization in an Annual Conference can legally accept title to any property which does not contain the Trust Clause as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church."

Further information obtained from the Secretary of the Louisville Annual Conference indicates that title to the above mentioned property is held by the Board of Trustees of The Methodist House, a corporation of the Louisville Annual Conference.

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline which grants an Annual Conference the right to request a declaratory decision on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein, this request is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The question before the Judicial Council is whether a Board of Trustees or any other group or organization in an Annual Conference (other than the trustees of a local church) can legally accept title to property which does not contain the trust clause as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church. This inquiry arises out of concern for the manner in which title to certain property has been taken by the Trustees of The Methodist House, a corporation related to the Louisville Annual Conference. The question, therefore, does not involve a local church Board of Trustees. Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline is a part of a general division of the Discipline entitled "The Local Church." Clearly this and all other provisions of this part of the Discipline are for the guidance of Trustees, Official Boards and Quarterly Conferences within the local church. Paragraph 174, therefore, could have no binding effect upon the acts of an Annual Conference Board of Trustees or other groups or organizations within the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 709 of the 1952 Discipline, sub-section 2, relating to the powers of an Annual Conference Board of Trustees, states:

"The said corporation shall receive, collect, and hold in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any and all donations, bequests, and devises of any kind or character, real or personal, that may be given, devised, bequeathed, or conveyed to the said board or to the Annual Conference as such for any benevolent, charitable, or religious purpose, and shall administer the same and the income therefrom in accordance with the directions of the donor, trustor, or testator, . . . under the direction of the Annual Conference. . . ."

Since no reference is here made to the "trust clause" as set forth in Paragraph 174, further confirmation is given to the view that the said Paragraph 174 and the trust clause included therein refer solely to the acquisition of real property by the local church.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a Board of Trustees of an Annual Conference or any other group or organization related to an Annual Conference may legally accept title to real estate which does not contain the "Trust Clause" as set forth in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline.

In Re: Privilege of Voting for Approved Supply Elders

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference may not extend voting privileges to full-time Approved Supply Pastors who are ordained Elders and who have served charges during the past year.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On September 4, 1956, the Judicial Council received the following communication from Robert H. Courtney, Secretary of the North-East Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church:

"To the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church:

"The following is certified to be a true copy of the Journal of the North-East Ohio Conference of The Methodist Church:

"Wednesday, June 20, 1956, the North-East Ohio Annual Conference meeting in Lakeside, Ohio, approved the following recommendation on motion of H. B. Williams, Secy. of the Cabinet:

" 'We recommend that under the General Conference legislation empowering an Annual Conference to permit full time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches to vote on all matters not affecting orders and Conference membership, we extend that privilege to the men covered by that legislation at this session of the North-East Ohio Annual Conference.'

(Approved by a standing vote, aye 399, no 28)

"Saturday, June 23, 1956, the North-East Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church meeting at Lakeside, Ohio—

" 'Judicial Statement—on motion of Clarence H. LaRue, the North-East Ohio Conference requested a Declaratory Statement from the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church relative to the voting privilege for full time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches.'

"Respectfully submitted,

(signed) Robert H. Courtney
Robert H. Courtney, Secretary
The North-East Ohio Annual Conference
The Methodist Church"

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the North-East Ohio Annual Conference.

Analysis

On May 7, 1956, Calendar No. 133, Report No. 12, Committee on Ministry, Subject: Voting Privileges for Supply Men, was duly presented to and adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church in session at Minneapolis, Minnesota, as follows:

> "An Annual Conference, may, by a three-fourths vote, at the opening of the annual session, grant to full-time approved supply pastors who are ordained elders and who have served charges during the past year, the privilege of voting at that session on all matters before the Conference, except those dealing with ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers, and the election of lay and ministerial delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences."

Acting under the provisions of this legislation the North-East Ohio Annual Conference as above stated did on June 20, 1956, pass the above stated motion to permit full-time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches to vote on all matters not affecting orders and conference membership.

Already the law of the Church under Paragraph 317 of the 1952 Discipline provides that "An approved supply pastor who is in charge of a pastoral appointment shall attend the sessions of the Annual Conference and shall have the privilege of speaking on any question, but without vote."

Hence the only question herein involved concerns the right to vote. The right to vote is the ultimate privilege in any organization and in effect bestows membership.

The Constitution of The Methodist Church (Section VII, Article I, Division Two of the Constitution, Paragraph 21 of the 1952 Discipline) reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. The lay members shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall have been for the four years next preceding their election members of one of the constituent churches forming this union, or of The Methodist Church."

Article II of said Section VII of the Constitution, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline, reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

Specified herein as reserved to the Annual Conference is, among other items, the right to vote on all constitutional amendments and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution.

To grant an annual right to vote to certain approved supply pastors would in effect extend to them temporary membership in the Annual Conference, making an Annual Conference membership of traveling preachers in full connection, lay members and certain approved supply pastors.

This Judicial Council has already stated under Decision No. 129:

"It is hardly conceivable that an Annual Conference could grant to a non-member the right to vote on these important matters. There is no provision in the Constitution or in the law of the Church for an associate member of an Annual Conference."

Furthermore, said Decision No. 129 states:

"Only members of the Annual Conference can vote on the matters enumerated in the Constitution. By implication, it would be unconstitutional for an Annual Conference to grant the right to vote on any matter to a person not a member of the Annual Conference."

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference cannot grant to full-time approved supply pastors who are ordained elders and who have served charges during the past year the privilege of voting on any matter, and that the legislation adopted by the 1956 General Conference permitting this privilege contravenes the Constitution of The Methodist Church.

Concurring Opinion

My colleagues have granted me the privilege of this concurring opinion which has as its purpose the setting forth of some of the arguments upon which the majority based its decision to take jurisdiction.

Paragraph 43 of the Discipline, Division Four, Article II of the Constitution, defines the authority of the Judicial Council. Section 1 reads in part, "To determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of the majority of the Council of Bishops, or one fifth of the members of the General Conference; . . ." Other sections of this Paragraph deal with other powers and duties of the Judicial Council and section 5 reads, "To have such other duties and powers as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference."

In Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline the General Conference conferred other duties and powers, "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, . . . (certain authorities in the Church affected thereby) . . . may petition the Judicial Council for a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline; and the Decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a decision on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council."

Decision No. 37 of the Judicial Council on May 9, 1946, refused jurisdiction in the case of a request from an Annual Conference for a declaratory decision on the question of the constitutionality of an act of the General Conference. It refused to take jurisdiction on two grounds, first, that it had no authority to do so under Paragraph 43, section 1, of the Constitution and, second, that it had no authority to do so under General Conference legislation, stating that "Neither is there any authority in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline for Declaratory Decisions in response to appeals from Annual Conferences."

It was the judgment of the Judicial Council that the Annual Conference was not included in those authorities noted in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline which would have the right to petition the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision. It would seem a logical inference that if in the judgment of the Judicial Council the Annual Conference had been included in those authorities noted in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline, the Judicial Council could have taken jurisdiction in the matter then before it.

The General Conference in 1952 opened the door which the Judicial Council had declared in its Decision No. 37 to be closed. It passed legislation amending Paragraph 914 by specifying those bodies within The Methodist Church which had the right to petition the Judicial Council for declaratory decisions and section 8 of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline included among such bodies, "Any Annual Conference on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein."

Certainly the Annual Conference has no authority to survey the acts and legislation of the General Conference with the purpose simply of raising constitutional questions. However, "on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein" the General Conference in Paragraph 914 of the Discipline has granted the Annual Conference the right to petition the Judicial Council for relief concerning any act or legislation of the General Conference that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or concerning any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline which seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, and has authorized the Judicial Council to take jurisdiction even though in the granting of such relief in the nature of a declaratory decision concerning the meaning, application and effect of such act or legislation, paragraph or paragraphs, the Judicial Council must deal with questions of constitutionality.

When Paragraph 914 of the Discipline speaks of "any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline which seem to be of doubtful meaning or application" it does not distinguish between paragraphs of General Conference legislation and paragraphs of the constitution, nor does it exempt paragraphs of the constitution from consideration in the declaratory decisions permitted. Surely when a paragraph of General Conference legislation seems to be in conflict with a paragraph of the constitution the former "seems to be of doubtful meaning or application" and no declaratory decision can determine its "meaning, application, and effect" without interpreting it in terms of constitutional provisions, or, when the nature of the conflict requires it, dealing with the question of its constitutionality.

Since 1952 the Judicial Council has taken jurisdiction in many petitions from Annual Conferences for declaratory decisions. Always, before taking jurisdiction, the Judicial Council carefully determines whether or not the petition is concerned with "matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein." This provides a severe limitation on the rights of Annual Conferences to petition the Judicial Council for declaratory decisions. If, in addition to this, the Judicial Council be also required, before taking jurisdiction, to determine whether or not any question of constitutionality is involved, then the Judicial Council becomes involved in intricate arguments concerning its authority to take jurisdiction and the Annual Conference is denied what seems to be the clear intent of the General Conference in Paragraph 914 of the Discipline, namely, the right of direct petition to the Judicial Council for relief concerning any provision of the Discipline which "appears to be subject to more than one interpretation" or which seems "to be of doubtful meaning or application" and which seriously affects "Annual Conferences or the work therein."

Ralph M. Houston

Dissenting Opinion

The majority say they take jurisdiction of the question submitted by the North-East Ohio Annual Conference for a declaratory decision under Paragraph 914 (8). The basic question is clearly the constitutionality of the 1956 General Conference legislation pursuant to which the Annual Conference acted. Believing that we do not have jurisdiction to make such a determination for the reasons expressed in the Dissenting Opinion in Decision Number 134, I respectfully dissent from this decision for those same reasons.

In view of the Concurring Opinion in this Decision I feel I must add to my previous reasons that the word "Disci- pline" alone as used in Paragraph 914 should not be construed as including the Constitution especially when the latter is separately entitled in the Discipline, has been adopted and is amended in such a different manner than General Conference legislation, and generally in the Church is thought of as separate.

Further "matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein" isn't much of a limitation on our jurisdiction to consider petitions for declaratory decisions from Annual Conferences as most legislation enacted by the General Conference will affect Annual Conferences.

Donald A. Odell concurs in this Dissent.

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr.

Lester A. Welliver concurs in the Dissent but not in the argument of the Dissenting Opinion.

In Re: Standards for Wesley Foundations

DIGEST OF DECISION

The General Conference acted within its constitutional powers in directing the Board of Education of The Methodist Church through its Division of Educational Institutions to appoint a COMMISSION ON STANDARDS FOR WESLEY FOUNDATIONS to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations and report to the division the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the Commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 22, 1957, the Judicial Council received the following communication from Jay N. Bostrom, Conference Secretary, The Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church:

"To: The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church

"The Minnesota Annual Conference in its recent session called for a declaratory decision of the Judicial Council. The following excerpt from the daily journal for Saturday, June 15, 1957, gives the action taken.

"'Referral to Judicial Council—W. A. Korfhage presented the following resolution: "That the Minnesota Conference in session at Hamline Methodist Church, St. Paul Minnesota, on Saturday, June 15, 1957, petition the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, the Hon. J. Ernest Wilkins, President, for a declaratory decision on Paragraph 1368, of the 1952 Discipline (Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline), and upon the means used by a General Conference Board in enforcing this paragraph. The parties affected are The National Board of Education, and the Committee of 11 on qualifications. This petition is authorized by Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline." O. D. Jackson moved referral without further debate. Seconded and carried.'

"I am sending this to you so that it may be placed on the agenda for the next meeting of the Judicial Council. If additional information is desired, I am certain that Rev. Wilbur A. Korfhage and others in the Minnesota Conference will be glad to supply it.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jay N. Bostrom, Conference Secretary
The Minnesota Annual Conference of
The Methodist Church"

Jurisdiction

Under Sub-Section 8, Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the Minnesota Annual Conference.

Analysis

While the resolution adopted by the Minnesota Annual Confererence requesting this declaratory judgment is not as precise and clear as might be desired, the apparent purpose of said resolution is to ask a declaratory judgment on the constitutionality of Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church and, if constitutional, the methods by which the requirements imposed in pursuance of said paragraph are to be enforced by the Board of Education and its Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations.

The first question relates then to the authority of the General Conference to enact said Paragraph 1367. The Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Two, Section I, Article IV (Par. 8), introductory Subsection, provides that "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority as follows:"

Following this introductory statement a series of specific items falling under the legislative power of the General Conference is listed. Sub-Section 8, Article IV (Par. 8), Section I, Division Two, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church reads:

"To initiate and to direct all connectional enterprises of the Church, such as publishing, evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent, and to provide boards for their promotion and administration."

From the time of union this Judicial Council has consistently ruled that

"The General Conference is the supreme legislative body of The Methodist Church and has been specifically empowered to legislate on all matters distinctively connectional. The Constitution specifically enumerates many items over which the General Conference shall have such authority in legislating, so as to make all such matters uniform throughout the Church." (Judicial Council Decision 7, 1940)

Again, this Judicial Council has ruled:

"Article IV, Section I, Division Two of the Constitution (Paragraph 8 of the 1948 Discipline) grants to the General Conference full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional. This is a broad grant of power, and unless there is found elsewhere in the Constitution some modification of, or a limitation to this power, the General Conference has the right to prescribe, etc." (Judicial Council Decision 83, 1952)

Thus the General Conference clearly has constitutional authority to enact legislation regulating the educational program of The Methodist Church, and acted under the Constitution in establishing the Board of Education of The Methodist Church with the provision that "The board shall have general oversight of the education interests of the church in the United States." (Paragraph 1325, 1956 Discipline) Further General Conference enactment provides that in the structure of said Board of Education

"There shall be a Division of Educational Institutions, which shall represent The Methodist Church in all activities connected with secondary, higher, and ministerial education. The division shall have an advisory relationship to all educational institutions affiliated with The Methodist Church: universities, colleges, schools, schools of theology, and Wesley Foundations in the United States. . . . Its principal objectives shall be: . . . to foster within these institutions the highest educational standards and soundest business practices." (Par. 1351, sections 1 and 2(b))

Furthermore, in Paragraph 1366, the General Conference has stated that "A Wesley Foundation is the organized educational ministry of The Methodist Church at a state or independent college or university. The character of this ministry shall be defined by the division. . . ."

Pursuant to the principles established by the legislation cited above, the General Conference adopted Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline:

"The division shall appoint a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations, which shall be the standardizing agency for all student work related to The Methodist Church at state and independent campuses in the United States. It shall be composed of six members of the division and five persons, not members of the General Board of Education, who are actively engaged in Wesley Foundation work, and who are fitted by training and experience to establish standards and evalute the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations. This commission shall report to the division of the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences."

All of the above legislation falls within the powers of the General Conference, under the Constitution and, being in the imperative, is mandatory upon the Board of Education, Division of Educational Institutions, for execution.

The second question propounded by the Minnesota Annual Conference finds explication in Paragraph 1367 of the Discipline which requires that

"The division shall appoint a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations, which shall be the standardizing agency for all student work related to The Methodist Church at state and independent campuses in the United States," and provides that

"This Commission shall report to the division the Wesley

Foundations which meet the standards established by the Commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences."

The means to be used by The Board of Education and its Division of Educational Institutions in enforcing requirements for standardization are thus: (1) Listing by the division of the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established; (2) Requiring that a Wesley Foundation shall meet the standards required in order to qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conferences as Wesley Foundations.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the General Conference acted within its constitutional powers in the enactment of Paragraph 1367 of the 1956 Discipline and that the provisions of said paragraph direct the Division of Educational Institutions of The Board of Education of The Methodist Church through a Commission on Standards for Wesley Foundations to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations and that only Wesley Foundations which this Commission reports to the Division of Educational Institutions as having met the standards established by the Commission qualify for financial support from the General Board and the Annual Conferences as approved Wesley Foundations.

Dissent

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr., Donald A. Odell, and Lester A. Welliver dissent from this Decision on the grounds that the Judicial Council lacks jurisdiction as noted in the Dissent to Decision No. 136.

In Re: Whether the Trustees of an Annual Conference Can Dispose of Funds Belonging to The Woman's Society of Christian Service of a Discontinued Church

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Trustees of an Annual Conference can dispose of funds belonging to the Woman's Society of Christian Service of a discontinued church as directed by the Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 25, 1957, at a regular session of the North Indiana Annual Conference a motion was offered to authorize the Trustees of the Conference to dispose of the assets of a discontinued church, including $1,000.00 deposited to the credit of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of that Church. The propriety of this action was questioned and by common consent it was determined to defer the action until a decision might be secured from the Judicial Council. A motion was then passed requesting a declaratory decision on the matter from the Judicial Council.

Jurisdiction

We take jurisdiction under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Chapter IV, Section IX, Paragraph 188.1 of the 1956 Discipline after referring to the duty of a Board of Trustees of a discontinued or abandoned church to dispose of its property as the Annual Conference directs, provides:

" * * * if no such lawful trustees remain, or if for any reason said trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference * * * "

Since the Annual Conference was proposing to authorize its trustees to dispose of the assets we take it that there were no local church trustees remaining or that they had failed to make a disposition.

The meaning of the rest of the provision quoted seems clear to us. It comes from the Chapter dealing with property in the part of the Discipline pertaining to the local church. Part of Paragraph 281 in the last chapter in that part of the Discipline says: "In every local church there shall be a Woman's Society of Christian Service." (Underlining ours.) When established the Society is part of the local church, and subject to the general provisions of the Discipline governing the local church, where there are no special ones pertaining to the Society. When the whole ceases to exist, the parts making it up necessarily cease to exist. Though it is true the funds secured by the local Society belong to it subject to certain obligations to the Woman's Division of Christian Service (Paragraph 282, 1956 Discipline), there is no provision in the Discipline concerning them other than that quoted above when the local church of which the Society is a part ceases to exist.

That being true the disposition of any property belonging to any such body at the time of abandonment or discontinuation of the local church is governed by Paragraph 188, particularly since the broad word, "property" is used in it. To us the intention of the provision is to provide a method of disposing of the assets of an abandoned or discontinued church and the bodies connected with it that is final and most beneficial to The Methodist Church. We feel that holding the Annual Conference has broad power to do so is consonant with the language and intent of the Discipline.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Trustees of an Annual Conference may dispose of funds belonging to the Woman's Society of Christian Service of a discontinued church as directed by the Annual Conference.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Bachman G. Hodge in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference Concerning the Application of Paragraph 1103 of the Discipline to the Methodist Children's Home at Selma, Alabama

DIGEST OF DECISION

The General Provisions of Part VII of the 1956 Discipline (Paragraphs 1101-1108) are applicable only to the general administrative agencies of The Methodist Church and cannot be held to apply to a Board of Directors or Trustees of a Children's Home which is the property of an Annual Conference or of Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following is a transcript from the Conference Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, page 186.

Request for Ruling

"The following request for a ruling was presented at the Alabama-West Florida Conference, which met in Montgomery, Alabama. The request was made by Rev. L. B. Green, a member of the conference in the retired relation. It was presented on Wednesday, May 29, 1957. The following is a syllabus of the request:

" 'Brother Green states that two of the leading members of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home, located at Selma, Alabama, and owned and supported by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences, have used their positions on the board for their own financial advantage. Mr. Green further states that the Chairman of the Board, an architect, received fees for his services as the architect for the Children's Home. Furthermore, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Methodist Children's Home, an insurance agent, received fees for insurance services to the Home. Brother Green is of the opinion that the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home, Selma, Alabama, the property of the Birmingham Area of The Methodist Church, is subject to the provisions of Paragraph 1103 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church. He requested a ruling on the matter.'

Ruling of the Bishop

"Section 1103 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows:

" 'No person who receives compensation for services rendered or commissions of any kind from a board or other agency shall be eligible for voting membership on that board or agency.'

"It is my opinion, and I so rule, that this section does not apply to inter-conference or conference boards or agencies. This section appears in Chapter 1 of Part VII of the Discipline and deals exclusively with the administrative agencies governing the general administrative services of the church as the Coordinating Council, Council on World Service and Finance, The Methodist Publishing House, the Board of Missions and other general administrative agencies.

"The fact that the General Conference of 1956 excluded certain general agencies from the provisions of this section, but took no action excluding agencies other than general administrative agencies, is persuasive of the fact that the General Conference intended this Section 1103 to apply only to the general administrative agencies of the entire church.

"An editorial note to Part VII of the Discipline defines 'agency' as a general term, meaning council, board, commission, committee, or other body established to carry out the connectional work of the church. Section 2100 of the 1956 Discipline defines 'connectional' as follows: 'Of or pertaining to the general organization or functioning of The Methodist Church, other than on a local-church basis.' The definitions which appear under Section 2100 are not official definitions, and were inserted by the editors only for the convenience of the reader. It is obvious that the definition of 'connectional' is not complete. It omits entirely any reference to all of the multitude of bodies and agencies between general conference level and the local church level.

"Section 791 of the 1956 Discipline relates to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and it is there provided that a member of this commission cannot be a member or employee of any conference board or other agency participating in the funds of the conference benevolence budget.

"Section 1612 of the 1956 Discipline forbids membership on the Board of Conference Claimants to any person indebted to or a beneficiary of conference claimants' funds.

"If Section 1103 applied to conference agencies, then there would be no necessity for the special provisions of similar nature of Sections 791 and 1612.

"The fact that the Discipline, in dealing with conference agencies, forbad interested parties serving only on the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and on the Board of Conference Claimants, Section 791 and 1612, indicates that these special rules on disqualification would apply only to these particular boards and to no other conference agency.

"If it had been intended that a member of a conference commission or agency should be ineligible for voting if he received compensation for service rendered such commission, board or agency, or any such conference agency; then the General Conference could have specifically legislated thereon. The fact that it did not, in my opinion, sustains my conclusion and ruling.

Bachman G. Hodge, Bishop
The Methodist Church
Birmingham Area"

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Hodge is properly before the Judicial Council under Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Part VII of the 1956 Discipline is entitled "Administrative Agencies." Chapter 1 of Part VII is entitled "General Provisions." Paragraph 1103 is one of the paragraphs of this chapter. The question before us is whether Paragraph 1103 of these General Provisions can be held to apply to the Board of Directors or Trustees of a Children's Home owned and supported by the Alabama-West Florida and the North Alabama Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church.

The term "connectional" referred to by Bishop Hodge is part of an editorial attempt to define the word "agency" and is not a part of the text of the Discipline here. Connectionalism is a distinctive attribute of Methodism. It indicates that our system of polity is the opposite of congregationalism. The constitution declares that "The General Conference shall have full legislative powers over all matters distinctly connectional" (Par. 8 (1)). In such distinctively connectional matters the General Conference has exercised its authority on all levels of church organization, including the local church.

This, however, does not imply that specific provisions of the Discipline must be held to apply to all levels of church organization unless such seems to be the clear intent of the provisions.

The question before us is whether the General Conference intended the General Provisions of Chapter 1 of Part VII of the 1956 Discipline to apply to all levels of church agencies or only to the general Administrative agencies of the Church.

A careful reading of these General Provisions compels the conclusion that they could not have been intended to apply to any but the general agencies of The Methodist Church. With the single exception of the provisions in Par. 1103 it would be utterly impossible to apply the paragraphs of these General Provisions to agencies on any other level than that of the general church. It must be assumed that the provisions of Par. 1103 were also intended for such application only.

This is further corroborated by the proposed legislation to implement the report of the Survey Commission to the General Conference of 1952. On page 26 of the Daily Christian Advocate of 1952 is the originally proposed chapter 1 of Part VII of the Discipline. This proposed chapter 1 did not pass the General Conference in this form but it did indicate the thinking of the Survey Commission on "Administrative Agencies." The first paragraph of this proposed chapter 1 reads as follows—"The administrative agencies of The Methodist Church, hereinafter called the general agencies, shall include all committees, commissions, bureaus or sections, divisions, boards, departments and councils (except the Council of Bishops and the Judicial Council) created by the General Conference for the purpose of performing a specific function or functions." It is obvious that the Survey Commission was thinking in terms of "general agencies" when it proposed this chapter out of which the special Committee of Six drew the materials for the General Provisions which became chapter 1 of Part VII on Administrative Agencies.

It is true that Part VII of the 1956 Discipline also has provisions for subsidiary agencies to these general agencies on Jurisdictional, Annual Conferences, District Conference and even Local Church levels. The paragraphs which deal with these subsidiary agencies, however, specify the provisions under which they must function, as chapter 1 specifies the general provisions under which the general agencies must function.

The General Conference has provided Sundry Provisions for "Trustees of schools, colleges, universities, hospitals, homes, orphanages, institutes and other institutions owned or controlled by The Methodist Church" in Paragraph 728 of Part V in "Temporal Economy" which provisions would apply to a Children's Home owned by an Annual Conference or by Annual Conferences. The specific provisions of Paragraph 1103, however, are not included in Paragraph 728.

Decision

It is the Decision of the Judicial Council that Paragraph 1103 of the 1956 Discipline is applicable only to the general administrative agencies of The Methodist Church and cannot be held as applying to the Board of Directors of the Methodist Children's Home owned by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences of The Methodist Church. The ruling of Bishop Bachman G. Hodge in this case is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Donald Harvey Tippett in the California-Nevada Annual Conference with Reference to the Report of Joint Committee on Distribution of Responsibility for Conference Claimants

DIGEST OF DECISION

The report of the Joint Committee on Distribution of Responsibility for Conference Claimants submitted to the 1955 session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference did not change the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. Therefore, the ruling of Bishop Tippett on this question is affirmed.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference, Friday, June 18, 1954, upon motion by Myron Herrell, the following resolution was adopted: "That Myron Herrell, Roy E. Wilson and I. A. Engle be appointed as a committee to meet with a similar committee appointed by the Southern California-Arizona Conference and a representative of the Board of Pensions to adjudicate matters relating to annuity responsibility on account of service rendered to one or more of the predecessor Annual Conferences of the California-Nevada and Southern California-Arizona Annual Conferences and that, subject to agreement by the Executive Secretary of the Board of Pensions, this Committee be granted power to act on behalf of the California-Nevada Annual Conference." (The 1954 Journal of the California-Nevada Conference, page 71, third paragraph.)

One year later, on June 18, 1955, the committee authorized on June 18, 1954, submitted the following report:

"The report of the Joint Distributing Committee on page 43 of the 1940 Journal of the California Annual Conference assigns annuity responsibility to the successor Annual Conferences. The assignment of responsibility for years of service for men retired prior to 1940 is clear and is not dealt with in this report. Men with Fresno District years of service rendered prior to 1939, but who retired in 1940 or thereafter were not assigned in the 1940 Distributing Committee report. Our job, as a committee with power to act, was to complete the work of that committee.

"On December 20, 1954, the following action was taken by our Joint Committee:

"'The clearing house is requested to allocate years of service of men who retired in 1940 and after in line with paragraph 1636, 1952 Discipline, in which pension responsibility for the service of ministers is allocated to the present Annual Conference within which the charge serviced is now situated. This plan of allocation is to be effective for the 1955 clearing house year.'

"Agreements entered into by former Conferences and the action of the Joint Distributing Committee were not within our power to change.

We therefore endeavored to restrict ourselves to completion of the 1940 report.

"We are continuing to negotiate differences of interpretation of the above action in regard to service rendered in the former language Conferences (Pacific German, Pacific Swedish, Western Norwegian-Danish). The total number of years involved in this difference of interpretation is 45.45 years of responsibility." (Page 155, 1955 Journal.)

During the discussion of the report, Dr. John R. Kenney requested in writing a ruling of the Bishop in the following points:

"(1) Can a Joint Committee change agreements entered into between Conferences, particularly when representatives of the Conferences involved are not members of said Joint Committee?

"(2) Can a Joint Committee alter or change the Report of the Distributing Committee made up of three members from the Arizona Conference, and Pacific Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and from the Southern California and California Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church?

"(3) Does the report of the Joint Committee, submitted to this conference, change and alter the Report of the Joint Distributing Committee, composed of three members from each of the Conferences being merged into two successor Conferences, in 1939-40?"

Bishop Tippett ruled as follows:

"In view of the answer to Question 3 hereinafter given, Questions 1 and 2 become moot questions, and consequently no attempt will be made to answer them here.

"Question 3 asks if the Report of the Joint Committee of 1954-55 changes and alters the Report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940.

"It does not. The Discipline of 1939, Paragraph 1312, granted the Distributing Committee power to allocate the Conference Claimants and the distributable assets of the Conference to be merged. This the Distributing Committee did. (Again see report of this Committee dated May 28, 1940.)

"The Joint Committee of 1955 in no way changed or altered these allocations either of Conference Claimants or of distributable assets—and in their report acknowledged that they could not. Rather they dealt with other matters of annuity responsibility as they affected the California-Nevada and the Southern California-Arizona Conference."

Jurisdiction

Since Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline requires the Judicial Council to pass upon the decisions of law made by the Bishops in Annual and District Conferences, it has jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

The record in this case shows that Bishop Tippett was requested to rule on three questions which were presented in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 40, Article VII, of the 1952 Discipline. On the first two of these he gave no ruling, saying that in ruling on the third, the others became moot questions and consequently no attempt would be made to answer them. He answered the third question by ruling that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter in any way the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. In this we concur.

In order to ascertain whether or not the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 changed or altered the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940, it is necessary to determine the scope of each report.

The report of the Joint Committee of 1955 states that "The assignment of responsibility for years of service for men retired prior to 1940 is clear and is not dealt with in this report." This has not been questioned. The Committee understood its task to be that of assigning certain men who had years of service rendered prior to 1939 but who had retired in 1940 or thereafter. This it did by unanimously requesting the clearing house to allocate the annuity responsibility for those men in line with Paragraph 1636 of the 1952 Discipline in which pension responsibility for the service of ministers is allocated to the Annual Conference within which a charge served is now situated. This allocation was to be effective for the 1955 clearing house year. This is known as divided annuity responsibility, which was taken over from the former Methodist Episcopal Church at the time of union and has been in the Discipline ever since.

It was doubtless to the assignment of these men to which the report of the Committee of 1955 referred in its statement, "Our job, as a Committee with power to act, was to complete the work of that Committee." It had no reference to the assignment of those who were Conference Claimants at the time the report of the 1940 Committee was made.

The Joint Distributing Committee of 1940 was set up in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 1312 of the 1939 Discipline with power "to allocate the Conference Claimants and the distributable assets of the Conference to be merged."

It is to be noted that the Discipline gave power to this Committee to allocate only the Conference Claimants, that is, ministers who were already retired, widows and children of deceased ministers. It was no power to this Committee to allocate annuity responsibility for ministers who were at the time in the effective relation. There is no evidence that the Committee exceeded the authority thus given it.

That the Committee recognized this limitation to the allocation of Conference Claimants only is evidenced by the following:

1. All of the persons allocated by name in the report were Conference Claimants at the time the report was adopted. No minister in the effective relation was named.
2. In the computation of assets and pension liabilities of the merging Conferences, which was to form the basis for the allocations, there is no computation of future liability for the pensions of men who would retire subsequent to 1940. If the Committee had been considering these men in its report, it would have figured the pension liability of them in arriving at an equitable allocation of all concerned.

Further supporting evidence that the 1940 report was intended to and actually did refer to the assignment of those who were Conference Claimants at the time the report was made and not of ministers who were then in the effective relation is to be found in the following references:

1. In the Journal of the California Conference for 1939 on page 38 there is a resolution which states, "and since it is proposed that the Northern Successor Conference assume the pension responsibility for all retired men of the Pacific Conference, etc.—; and the Southern Successor Conference assumes the pension responsibility for all retired men of the Arizona Conference, etc.—."

An identical resolution is to be found in the Journal of the Pacific Conference for 1939 on page 23. Both refer to retired men only.

2. In the Journal of the California-Nevada Conference for 1942 on page 321 in the report of the Board of Conference Claimants appears the following:

> "Whereas in the organization of the California and the Southern California-Arizona Conferences of the Methodist Church by the merging of the California and Southern California Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Pacific and Arizona Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Joint Distributing Committee allocated the responsibility for the service years of retired men belonging to the four Conferences in proportion to the ability of the two successor Conferences, but did not adjust the responsibility for accrued service years in the effective relation and—"

It follows, therefore, that since the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940 dealt only with these who were Conference Claimants at that time and since the Joint Committee of 1955 dealt only with certain men who were retired in 1940 and thereafter that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940.

In view of our conclusion with respect to question No. 3, it is our opinion that questions No. 1 and No. 2 become moot questions as was indicated by Bishop Tippett.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the report of the Joint Committee of 1955 did not change or alter in any respect the report of the Joint Distributing Committee of 1940. The ruling of Bishop Tippett on this question is hereby affirmed.

Note: Donald A. Odell voluntarily refrained from participating in the discussion in connection with this matter and from voting on the decision.

In Re: May an Annual Conference Adopt a Rule Establishing a Quorum for the Transaction of Business?

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference may adopt a rule establishing a quorum for the transaction of business.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 24, 1956, during the regular session of the New York Annual Conference, the following resolution was presented for action:

"That the Conference establish a quorum for the conduct of business to consist of at least one-fourth of the lay and ministerial numbers."

Bishop F. B. Newell, presiding at the Conference, made a statement concerning the resolution and read a part of the ruling given by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam during the New York Conference meeting at St. James Methodist Church, Kingston, New York, on May 3, 1945. Bishop Newell stated that if he ruled on the proposed resolution he would have to rule it out of order. He suggested that it would be better to refer the matter to the Judicial Council. Thereafter a motion was made and carried that the matter be referred to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisidiction to hear and determine the question submitted by the New York Annual Conference for a declaratory decision, under the provisions of Paragraph 914, sub-paragraph 8, of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Analysis

Paragraph 634 of the 1956 Discipline provides that:

"The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure; provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted by The General Conference."

The Constitution of the Church (Paragraph 4 of the 1956 Discipline) provides that there shall be Annual Conferences as the fundamental bodies in the Church, and in Section VII, Article I of the Constitution (Paragraph 22 of the 1956 Discipline) it is stated that the Annual Conference is the basic body of the Church.

The ruling of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam made at the meeting of the New York Conference in May 3, 1945, was considered and upheld by the Judicial Council in its Decision No. 36. The facts in that case were that prior to the annual meeting of the New York Conference held on May 3, 1945, the members of the Conference were strongly urged not to attend. This was done for the purpose of preventing the attendance from exceeding the limit established by a wartime regulation of the Office of Defense Transportation of the United States. As a result the attendance at the Conference was very small. Bishop Oxnam ruled that there was no quorum required for meetings of Annual Conferences and therefore those present at the Conference constituted a legal session.

Insofar as it related to the matter at hand, the only pertinent holding of that decision is that no quorum for an Annual Conference is established in the law of the Church. It does not hold that an Annual Conference may not adopt a rule or by-law establishing a quorum for the conduct of business.

The precedents referred to in Bishop Oxnam's ruling are not controlling. In effect the rule states in those rulings of

The Methodist Episcopal Church and The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, made many years prior to unification and the adoption of the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church, was that an Annual Conference has no quorum and might not establish a quorum for the transaction of business. In this connection it is important to note that the Discipline of The Methodist Protestant Church (1936), the other of the three uniting churches, as it existed at the time of unification provided that a majority of all members of the Annual Conference in attendance at an Annual Conference session should constitute a quorum. The precedents of all of the uniting churches are important insofar as they may give light concerning the intention of those who adopted the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church. It appears that the three uniting churches did not have a uniform rule with respect to this subject.

It also appears that neither the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church (1936) nor the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South (1938) in effect at the time of unification and the adoption of the Constitution and Discipline of The Methodist Church contained a provision like or similar to the provisions of Paragraph 634 of the present Discipline. It necessarily follows that Paragraph 634 provides a new rule granting the Annual Conference the right to make the rules to govern its own procedure, the only limitation being that no such Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church or to the powers granted by the General Conference.

Under the Constitution and the enactments of the General Conference of The Methodist Church the composition and character of the Annual Conference as the basic body of the church has been materially changed through the years.

Such precedents cannot stand as controlling in opposition to the clear language of the Discipline. There is no provision in the Constitution, or in the enactments of the General Conference prohibiting an Annual Conference from establishing a quorum for the transaction of its business nor is there any language indicating an intention to carry over into the law of the Church any one or either of the prior conflicting precedents.

The affirmative provisions of Paragraph 634 of the Discipline control. This right, unless otherwise specifically limited, that is the right of adopting a rule fixing a quorum for the transaction of business, is a power inherent in any body. The General Conference of The Methodist Church has seen fit to adopt such a rule for itself. Paragraph 506 of the 1956 Discipline provides:

> "When the General Conference is in session it shall require the presence of a majority of the whole number of delegates to the General Conference to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may take a recess or adjourn from day to day in order to secure a quorum and at the final session may approve the journal, order the record of the roll-call, and adjourn sine die."

Decision

It is therefore, the Decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference may adopt a rule establishing a quorum for the conduct of its business.

In Re: The Power of a Central Conference to Add a New Paragraph to the Discipline in Accordance with the Provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline (Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline) of The Methodist Church

DIGEST OF DECISION

The enactments of the Latin American Central Conference revising Paragraph 127 of the Discipline are contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church and may not be included in the Discipline of said Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 562 of the Discipline. (Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline)

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Latin American Central Conference in session November 11-18, 1956, approved the following paragraph to be included in the Discipline (Spanish edition) to be used in the area of said Conference.

Paragraph 127 bis. "We recognize the right that parents have to dedicate their children to the Lord, postponing baptism until the child accepts Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. The dedicated children shall be entered on the permanent records as candidates for membership, in a special section for them. The Minister shall diligently instruct the parents with regard to the vows they assume and he shall exhort them to be ever faithful therein."

At the same session of the Conference approval was given to amend Paragraph 127 of the Discipline as follows:

Paragraph 127, sentence 2, states: "It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord in Baptism as early as practicable."

As amended, the words "in Baptism" are omitted causing the sentence to read: "It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord as early as practicable."

Following the approval to revise the Discipline as indicated the constitutionality of the action was challenged and a motion was made to refer the matter to the Judicial Council. The motion was duly seconded and more than one fifth of the members of the Conference voted to appeal to the Judicial Council to determine whether the Conference is empowered to make these modifications under the provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council, under Paragraph 905 of the 1956 Discipline, has jurisdiction to hear and determine this appeal.

Analysis

The enactment of the Latin American Central Conference herein appealed were adopted under the provisions of Paragraph 578 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

The 1956 Discipline superseded the 1952 Discipline prior to the sessions of the Latin American Central Conference November 11-18, 1956. (See Paragraph 575) Paragraph 578 of the Discipline (1952 Edition) is carried forward as Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Edition and grants the Central Conferences the power "to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require regarding the local church, ministry, special advices, worship, and temporal economy within its territory, . . . provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church."

The Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 19, Section 5) describing the duties and powers of Central Conferences also states:

"To make rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference."

All Conferences of The Methodist Church are subject to limitations imposed by the Constitution of The Methodist Church, both in their usage and conferring of powers. The following limitations apply in the case under consideration.

Article of Religion XVII (Paragraph 77 of the Discipline) states: "The Baptism of young children is to be retained in the Church." The First Restrictive Rule of the Constitution governing the General Conference (Paragraph 9, Section 1) states: "The General Conference shall not revoke, alter, or change our Articles of Religion, or establish any new standards or rules of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine."

Paragraph 127 clearly defines our present existing and established standards of doctrine with reference to the dedication of children in Baptism, in the following:

"We hold that all children by virtue of the unconditional benefits of the atonement, are members of the family of God, and are therefore graciously entitled to Baptism. It shall be the duty of the Pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord in Baptism, as early as practicable."

The foregoing provisions of the Discipline clearly indicate that the enactment of the Latin American Central Conference involved in this appeal are contrary to the First Restrictive Rule of the Constitution of The Methodist Church. (Paragraph 9, Sec. 1) tending to alter the Article of Religion XVII and establishing a new standard or rule of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the enactments of the Latin American Central Conference revising Paragraph 127 of the 1956 Discipline are contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church and that said Conference does not have the right under the provisions of Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline to include them in the edition of the Discipline to be used in the area of the Latin American Central Conferences.

In Re: Question—When an Annual Conference Is Incorporated Should the Sale of Property of an Abandoned Church Be Authorized by Action of the Conference Corporation in Session or by Action of the Annual Conference in Session as an Ecclesiastical Body?

DIGEST OF DECISION

The sale of property of an abandoned church should and must be authorized by action of an Annual Conference in session as an ecclesiastical body.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Ohio Annual Conference is incorporated. At each annual meeting of the Conference, a meeting of the members of the Conference Corporation is held. These meetings are referred to as corporate sessions and the President of the Board of Trustees or Directors of the corporation presides at such meetings. The Bishop presides at the other meetings of the Conference. Such meetings are referred to as ecclesiastical sessions of the Conference. At the Annual Conference held in 1957, the sale of property of an abandoned church was considered at a meeting of the members of the Conference Corporation or in other words in a corporate session of the Conference. The question arose as to whether the sale of the property of an abandoned church should be authorized at a corporate session of the Conference or by action taken at an ecclesiastical session.

The Conference has requested the Judicial Council to rule on the question. This request is in the nature of a request for a Declaratory Decision.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church to hear and determine the matter here submitted.

Analysis

Paragraph 188 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church provides:

"With the consent of the presiding bishop and of a majority of the district superintendents and of the District Board of Church Location and Building (Paragraphs 721-24) of the district in which the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any local church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. It shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees (Paragraph 190) to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct; and if not such lawful trustees remain, or if for any reason said trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference; . . ."

This section also provides that:

"All the deeds, records, and other official and legal papers of a Methodist church that is declared to be abandoned or otherwise discontinued shall be collected by the district superintendent in whose district said church was located and shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the secretary of the Annual Conference."

This section also provides:

"When a church property has been abandoned by its membership and no abandonment action has been taken by the Annual Conference, and circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Annual Conference trustees may take control of the property, with the consent of the presiding bishop and the District Board of Church Location and Building of the district in which the property is located. And in the event of the sale or lease of said property the trustees of the Annual Conference shall recommend to the Annual Conference at its next session the disposition of the proceeds derived from such sale or lease."

It is clear from the language of this section that the abandonment of a local church and the disposition of its property are matters to be determined by the Annual Conference as an ecclesiastical body. Not only is the consent of the presiding bishop and a majority of the district superintendents required before the Annual Conference may declare any local church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned, but in addition, the paragraph requires that all of the deeds and records of the abandoned church be collected by the district superintendent in whose district the church is located and be deposited for safekeeping with the secretary of the Annual Conference.

In Decision No. 38 of the Judicial Council, given May 9, 1946, it appears that the Judicial Council considered a ruling of Bishop William C. Martin made at a meeting of the Central Kansas Annual Conference, which had been incorporated under authority given by Paragraph 625 of the Discipline. The Bishop's ruling reviewed by the Judicial Council was:

"The Central Kansas Conference of The Methodist Church is an incorporated body and is competent in any regular session of the Conference to transact any and all business of a legal nature that may be regularly brought before it."

The Judicial Council in that decision held that where an Annual Conference has been incorporated and the corporation has adopted by-laws, the corporate sessions must be called in the manner provided by the by-laws and that when the Conference is once in such corporate session it may exercise all of the powers of a corporation to amend its charter and by-laws and to transact any and all business of a legal nature that may be regularly brought before it.

This decision makes a distinction between the Conference as an ecclesiastical organization and as a corporate body. Even though an Annual Conference is incorporated, under the provisions of Paragraph 625, 1956 Discipline, it continues to retain its character as an ecclesiastical organization with the powers and duties relating to ecclesiastical matters provided in the Discipline. The effect of this decision is to establish the rule that only when a corporate meeting has been called, as provided in the corporate by-laws, can the corporation transact such business of a legal nature as may be brought before it. It appears to be clear from this that conversely such business as might be of an ecclesiastical nature could only be transacted at a meeting of the Conference presided over by the Bishop and help in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, that is, at an ecclesiastical session of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the sale of property of an abandoned church should and must be authorized by action of an Annual Conference in session as an ecclesiastical body.

In Re: Appeal of J. R. Parker

DIGEST OF DECISION

When an appellant fails to comply with the provision of Par. 1025 of the 1956 Discipline which requires that a written statement of the grounds of appeal be furnished at the same time notice of appeal is given, the appeal must be dismissed.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

J. R. Parker, a member of the Kentucky Annual Conference, was found guilty on a charge of "unministerial conduct" at a trial held in the Centenary Methodist Church, Lexington, Kentucky, on October 25th and 26th, with Bishop William T. Watkins presiding. The penalty fixed by the trial court was three years suspension followed by an appearance before the Confernece Committee on Conference Relations.

The case was appealed and heard by the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction at the Wesley Memorial Building in Atlanta, Georgia, on February 19, 1957. The Court of Appeals upheld the verdict in the case of J. R. Parker but reduced the penalty of suspension from three years to one year ending with the opening of the 1957 session of the Kentucky Annual Conference.

Russell R. Patton and John L. Tilton, counsel for the defense, sent the following letter, dated Mark 16, 1957, to Dr. Albert S. Trulock, President and Dr. Brunner M. Hunt, Secretary of the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction—

"Dear Brethren:

"This is to inform you of our intent to carry this case to the Judicial Council. Transcript from your court reached us on Thursday, March 21st. A few days will be required for the preparation of our brief. But in keeping with the 30 day notice we present this declaration. . . ."

On August 17th, approximately five months later, counsel for the appellant sent out to all parties concerned a Brief which contained the grounds for this appeal.

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 1045 of the 1956 Discipline the Judicial Council has the authority to hear and determine this appeal.

Analysis

Paragraph 1025 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows—

"In all cases of appeal the appellant shall within thirty days give notice of appeal and at the same time shall furnish to the officer receiving such notice, and to the counsel for the church, a written statement of the grounds of his appeal, and the hearing in the appellate court shall be limited to the grounds set forth in such statement."

In Decision No. 3 of the Judicial Council is his statement—

"Paragraph 897, Section 11, of the 1936 Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church provides that in all cases of appeal the Appellant shall furnish a written statement of the grounds of his appeal, and the hearing in the Appellate Court shall be limited to the grounds set forth in such statement. The Appellant did not comply with any of the requirements of this section. He merely 'appealed.' This may seem technical, but judicial procedures as set forth in the Discipline is necessarily technical and must be complied with in order to protect both the interests of the parties involved, and the Church.

"The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1936 adopted a report of the Judiciary Committee (Report No. 9, Appeal of A. H. Magee, found on page 459 of the General Conference Journal of 1936), in which an appeal was dismissed because the Appellant failed to furnish a written statement of the grounds of his appeal."

Such a written statement of the grounds of appeal was not provided by the Appellant in this case, either to the President or Secretary of the Court of Appeals to whom the notice of appeal was sent, or to Dr. G. R. Tomlin, counsel for the church, until approximately five months after the notice of appeal.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that because of the failure of the Appellant, J. R. Parker, to comply with the clear provisions of Paragraph 1025 of the 1956 Discipline this appeal must be and hereby is dismissed.

In Re: The Constitutionality of Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline Referring to the Restriction on Loans of Pension-Related Funds to Local Churches and Its Applicability to the West Texas Conference Endowment Association

DIGEST OF DECISION

Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional and is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 1917 the West Texas Annual Conference authorized the creation of the West Texas Conference Endowment Association for the purpose of acquiring and administering funds, the income from which was to be used solely "to assist in maintaining, providing and caring for the Conference Claimants of the West Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South."

Across the years this Corporation has performed the purpose for which it was created, and in doing so has from time made loans to local churches taking deeds of trust on Church property to secure the same. It is asserted that this is perfectly legal under the Texas law and under the charter of the corporation.

In 1956 the General Conference passed an act in conflict with this procedure. Paragraph 1612 of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows:

FINANCIAL POLICY

"The following rules shall apply to financial administration of Annual Conference pension and pension-related permanent funds:

"(1) . . . .

"(2) . . . .

"(3) No local church or organization thereof shall be eligible to obtain a loan in any amount from such funds."

At its regular session, the Southwest Texas Annual Conference passed a resolution requesting the Judicial Council to make a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision determining whether Section (3) of Paragraph 1612 of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional, and if it should be held constitutional then determining whether or not it is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension related funds in its hands.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council, under Paragraph 914 (8), takes jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

The Constitution in Paragraph 8, Article IV, gives the General Conference full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional. In sub-section (3) of this same paragraph, the General Conference has power "to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences. . . ."

Paragraph 1612, which is in question, deals with the rules applying to the "financial administration of Annual Conference pension and pension-related permanent funds." This is clearly a connectional matter. It also relates to the powers and duties of an Annual Conference, since this association was organized by the West Texas Annual Conference. It is therefore clearly within the power of the General Conference to enact the legislation under consideration.

The West Texas Conference Endowment Association was formed to assist in maintaining, providing and caring for the Conference Claimants of that Conference by accumulating and administering funds, the income of which were to be used for the above mentioned purpose. These funds are therefore "pension-related permanent funds."

The evidence indicates that some of these funds were loaned to local churches and deeds of trust taken on the Church property to secure the same. While this is asserted to be perfectly legal under the Texas law and under the charter of the Corporation, it is in violation of the provision in Paragraph 1612 (3) of the 1956 Discipline, which provides "no local church or organization thereof shall be eligible to obtain a loan in any amount from such funds."

We hold that Paragraph 1612 (3) is constitutional, and since the West Texas Conference Endowment Association is a Conference-created organization dealing with pension-related permanent funds, the provisions of Paragraph 1612 (3) are binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that Paragraph 1612 (3) of the Discipline of 1956 is constitutional, and that it is binding on the West Texas Conference Endowment Association charged with the administration of the pension-related funds in its hands.

February 8, 1958

Concurring Opinion

In concurring with the majority of the Council with respect to taking jurisdiction in this case which involves the request of an Annual Conference for a decision on a constitutional question, we recognize that the language of the Discipline, especially that of Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, is capable of more than one interpretation. This should be clarified by a revision of the legislation by the General Conference.

Since this is a question of the procedure by which a constitutional question reaches the Judicial Council and does not involve the power of the Judicial Council to decide such questions properly before it, and pending such revision and clarification of the procedures by which constitutional questions may reach the Judicial Council, we feel that questions of such importance to the life of the church should have the consideration of the Council. We therefore concur both in taking jurisdiction in this case and in the Decision reached.

In Re: The Publication of Names and Addresses of Local Church Lay Leaders in the Journals of Annual Conferences

DIGEST OF DECISION

Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the 1956 Discipline is not in violation of the Constitution of The Methodist Church and its provisions for the publication of the names of Local Church Lay Leaders in the Journals of Annual Conferences is mandatory.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Under date of June 24, 1957, the secretary of the Judicial Council received from J. Henry Cox, secretary of the Illinois Conference, the following resolution:

"WHEREAS Paragraph 362.10, Methodist Discipline of 1956, defining in part the duties of the district superintendents, states, 'To report the names of the church lay leaders in his district to the secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the conference journal; etc.' and

"WHEREAS local church lay leaders are officers of the local church and are not members of the Annual Conference, and

"WHEREAS other local church officers, names and addresses are not printed in the Conference Journal, and

"WHEREAS to establish such a precedent opens the way for insertion in the Annual Conference Journal of other local church officers, and

"WHEREAS such insertion in the printed records of the Annual Conference could become voluminous and expensive, therefore

"BE IT RESOLVED that the Illinois Conference of The Methodist Church request from the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church an interpretation or ruling, first, as to the constitutionality of such legislation on the part of the General Conference of The Methodist Church, and secondly, if such legislation is constitutional is the insertion of such a list of local church officers mandatory, or is it to be regarded as optional on the part of the person or persons charged with responsibility for publishing the Annual Conference Journal.

The Publishing Commission of the Illinois
Conference of The Methodist Church.

/s/ J. Henry Cox, Secretary"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council takes jurisdiction of the question herein presented under Paragraph 914, Section 8 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the Methodist Discipline of 1956 was adopted by the General Conference of 1956 and includes within it the duties of the district superintendent as related to the reporting of certain names to the various agencies and boards of the church which require them. The concern of the Illinois Conference is specifically with the first requirement of this paragraph,

> "To report the names and addresses of the church lay leaders in his district to the secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the conference journal."

The Illinois Conference requests the Judicial Council to determine whether or not the General Conference possesses the constitutional right to adopt such legislation and if it does, to render a Declaratory Decision determining whether this provision is permissive or mandatory upon an Annual Conference.

The Constitution of The Methodist Church in Paragraph 22 of the Discipline of 1956 which is Section VII, Article II of the Constitution reserves to the Annual Conference certain rights and privileges but none of which would include the matter now before us. The article concludes,

> "It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

The Constitution under Paragraph 8, which is Section I, Article IV, grants to the General Conference the power "to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences." There is no question, therefore, in the opinion of the Judicial Council that the General Conference was within its constitutional authority in enacting the legislation contained in the paragraph under question.

We take it that the principal concern of the Illinois Conference is in the second part of its query,

> "If such legislation is constitutional, is the insertion of such a list of local church officers mandatory or is it to be regarded as optional on the part of the person or persons charged with the responsibility for publishing the Annual Conference Journal?"

Reference to the Daily Christian Advocate of the General Conference of 1956 reveals that the legislation under question was proposed by the Committee on Lay Activities in their report No. 5, page 189, Daily Christian Advocate, which reads as follows:

> "The district superintendent shall secure the name and address of the church lay leader (s) and he shall present the name and address to the secretary of the Annual Conference at the meeting of the Annual Conference and this list shall be printed in Annual Conference Journal by the Annual Conference secretary.
> /s/ Ray H. Nichols, Chairman
> /s/ T. Russell Reitz, Secretary"

This report unanimously adopted by the Committee, and entered upon the calendar of the General Conference, would indicate the original intent of this legislation as being a mandatory provision.

Page 517 of the Daily Christian Advocate reveals the fact that because of some misunderstanding as to where this provision should be placed, the report was withdrawn by Ray H. Nichols, chairman of the Committee on Lay Activities, with the consent of the General Conference. On page 518, however, consideration of this report is renewed following a question addresed to the chairman of the Committee on Lay Activities,

"Mr. Nichols, I should like to know if in report No. 5 the withdrawing of that report means that we are not requesting the publication of the names and addresses of church lay leaders in Conference journals?"

To this question Mr. Nichols replied for the committee,

"No, it does not mean that."

Following this, Murray H. Leiffer, chairman of the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision, made the following statement,

"There are two legislative recommendations which request the district superintendent to report names and addresses of certain persons. This particular report, and also report 27 from the Committee on the Ministry. Since two of the proposed actions make the superintendent responsible, the Committee on Correlation proposes that these directives become part of one inclusive statement and that this be placed under Paragraph 362 in the Discipline. You may recall that 362 lists all the duties of the district superintendent. We, therefore, propose this as an action to cover both reports."

On page 624 of the Daily Christian Advocate, column 1, we find that Murray H. Leiffer presented report No. 1 of the Committee on Correlation and Editial Revision, which report was adopted by the General Conference and became a part of the Discipline of 1956, Paragraph 362, Section 10 and includes the provision which is being questioned by the Illinois Conference. In his presentation of the report, Dr. Leiffer said,

"The action recommended here under Report No. 1 has the full approval of both chairmen who are also on the platform this morning."

Since the legislation contained in Paragraph 362 originated in a report of the Committee on Lay Activities, the language of which was clearly mandatory, and, since there is no evidence in the Daily Christian Advocate of any amendment or desire to change the original intent of the report and, since the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision of which Mr. Leiffer was Chairman, is not a legislative committee and is, therefore, not empowered to change the meaning of any legislation or proposed legislation it seems clear, and the Judicial Council so holds, that the intent of the General Conference in adopting this legislation was to adopt the original intention of the Committee on Lay Activities which would make mandatory the printing of the names and addresses of church lay leaders in the journal of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the publication of names and addresses of Local Church Lay Leaders as directed by the 1956 General Conference in Paragraph 362, Section 10 of the 1956 Discipline is constitutional. It is the further decision of the Judicial Council that the insertion of such names in the Annual Conference Journal is mandatory upon the Annual Conference.

In Re: The Right of a Central Conference to Amend Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church Relating to the Qualifications for Membership on the Official Board of the Local Church

DIGEST OF OPINION

A central conference cannot adopt legislation which would have the effect of changing, modifying or altering Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church relating to the qualification for membership on the Official Board of the local church.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The 1956 session of the Latin American Central Conference of the Methodist Church held in Cochabamba, Bolivia, November 11th-18th, 1956, adopted a resolution to modify the last paragraph of Paragraph 207 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church (1952 Edition) by rewriting said last paragraph, which reads as follows:

"All lay members of the board shall be members of the local Methodist church; and in nominating and electing persons to such membership the utmost care shall be taken that only morally disciplined persons shall be so nominated with special reference to total abstinence from alcoholic beverages."

So that said paragraph would read as follows:

"All lay members of the board shall be members of the local Methodist church; and in nominating and electing persons to such membership, the utmost care shall be taken to search for such members of good testimony within the congregation as shall have given evidence of their fidelity to the church and of responsibility in the accomplishment of their duties."

This proposed change was approved by a majority vote of said Conference. Following this action the constitutionality of the proposed modification was challenged and a motion was made to appeal to the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church for a decision thereupon. This motion was duly seconded and was supported by more than one-fifth of the members of the Conference.

Jurisdiction

The question here presented is properly before the Judicial Council in accordance with the procedure set forth in Paragraph 905 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church (1952 and 1956 Editions).

Analysis

The question presented by this appeal is this: Does a Central Conference have the right to modify or change the qualifications for membership on the Official Board of the local church when such qualifications have been established by legislation enacted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church?

Division Two, Section I, Article IV of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 8 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, 1956 Edition) provides:

> "The General Conference shall have full legislative powers over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said power shall have authority as follows:
> . . . .
> "14. To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the church." (Emphasis added)

The board terms of the above quoted section of the Constitution of The Methodist Church clearly indicate that the General Conference of The Methodist Church is the legislative body of the church. There is no other legislative body in the church.

Division Two, Section V of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraphs 6 through 19 of the Discipline) provides for the organization and administration of Central Conferences for the work of The Methodist Church outside of the United States of America. Article IV of said Section V (Paragraph 19 of the Discipline) spells out the powers and duties conferred on the Central Conferences by the Constitution, and sub-paragraph 5 of the said Article IV grants Central Conferences the power "to make such rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference." (Emphasis added)

This appeal raises the question as to whether the action taken by the Latin American Central Conference on which this appeal arises was an effort to "make a rule or regulation for the administration of the work within its boundaries," or whether it was an attempt to legislate—not only to legislate, but to legislate in direct opposition to legislation already enacted by the General Conference as contained in Paragraph 207 of the Discipline.

It is our opinion and we so hold that the attempt of the Latin American Central Conference to alter and amend Paragraph 207 of the Discipline insofar as it related to the churches within its boundaries was an effort or attempt to enact legislation and was not an attempt on its part to make a rule or regulation for the administration of the work within its boundaries. This a Central Conference cannot do, especially in those cases in which the General Conference has already adopted a policy by specific General Conference legislation. To hold otherwise would be to vest in the Central Conferences the power to accept or reject at will the legislation of the General Conference of The Methodist Church or to concede that the General Conference of The Methodist Church can delegate its legislative powers.

The General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church. This principle is well established in the civil law. Undoubtedly, legislation must often be adapted to complex conditions involving a host of details with which the legislative body cannot deal directly. The Constitution of our church recognizes the necessity for flexibility and practicality concerning the operation of the Central Conference of the church.

Division Two, Section V, Article IV, Paragraph 5 quoted above provides the Constitutional framework within which rules and regulations may be adopted by the Central Conferences for the administration within their boundaries of the broad policy enactments of the General Conference. The General Conference itself has implemented this Constitutional grant of flexibility and practicality to the Central Conferences by the adoption of Paragraphs 562-582 of the Discipline (1956 Edition), but by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested. It has granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries as conditions require, but always within the framework of the legislative policy as fixed by the General Conference. As in example, by Paragraph 562 of the Discipline the General Conference has extended to the Central Conferences the power to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require regarding the local church, ministry, special advices, worship and temporal economy within its territory, providing that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church. The above quoted language was not intended to grant any blanket legislative authority to the Central Conferences. The General Conference could not have done so without violating the Constitution. This Constitutional principle was apparently recognized by the General Conference for in the paragraphs immediately following Paragraph 562 of the Discipline it spelled out with particularity the administrative areas in which the Central Conferences may make these permitted "changes and adaptations." It is significant that nowhere does the General Conference abdicate its legislative functions nor attempt to tranfer those functions to the Central Conferences.

Paragraph 207 of the Discipline is a legislative enactment by the General Conference of The Methodist Church and establishes the policy of the church concerning qualifications for membership on the Official Board of the local church. This legislation establishes the position of the church on the subject therein referred to unless and until modified or amended by the General Conference itself. The action of the Latin American Central Conference from which this appeal was taken was an effort to amend or modify the legislation so adopted by the General Conference and is therefore void.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the resolution adopted by the Latin American Central Conference from which this appeal was taken was and is unconstitutional and void.

February 8, 1958

Dissenting Opinion

The majority opinion is based on two assumptions: (1) that "The General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church"; and (2) that in adopting Paragraphs 562-582 of the Discipline (1956 Edition) "it (the General Conference) has only granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries as conditions require" and that "by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested."

With neither of these assumptions can I agree. Three constitutional powers vested in the General Conference give it complete authority to invest Central Conferences with powers to modify legislative enactments of the General Conference so long as these modifications are within the constitutional limits restricting General Conference legislation itself.

Paragraph 8, Introductory Statement of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, gives the General Conference "full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional." Paragraph 8. Subsection 4, of that Constitution permits the General Conference "to provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the church outside the United States of America." And Paragraph 19, Introductory Statement, declares that "The Central Conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference."

Invested with "full legislative power," directed "to provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the church outside the United States of America," and invested with full authority to confer "powers and duties" upon Central Conferences, the General Conference of The Methodist Church can assuredly delegate its legislative powers to Central Conferences to the fullest extent of the constitutional limitations set upon the General Conference itself in legislating.

This appears to have been admitted both by the proponents and the opponents of the two constitutional amendments adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church in 1928 and approved by Annual Conferences of that denomination during the ensuing quadrennium. These were the first constitutional provisions for Central Conferences in Methodism. Paragraph 19, Introductory Statement of the Constitution of The Methodist Church derives directly from one of these and preserves most of its language. These amendments were freely and completely discussed over a period of days before their adoption by the General Conference, and the whole tenor of the discussion indicates that general thinking gave widest interpretation to the powers with which the General Conference would be invested in dealing with Central Conferences.

The interpretation that "The General Conference of The Methodist Church can assuredly delegate its legislative functions to Central Conferences to the fullest extent of the constitutional limitations imposed upon the General Conference itself in legislating" has been not only supported by what seems to have been the thinking of those who originally adopted the Constitutional provisions now in question but also by this Judicial Council. In Decision 121, adopted on July 30, 1955, this Council, without dissent, adopted an opinion stating specifically that the General Conference did have constitutional power to authorize a Central Conference, if the Central Conference should see fit to do so, to modify Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline, said paragraph being without question not merely a rule or regulation but specific General Conference legislation on a matter of great importance.

The majority opinion, therefore, places a strait-jacket upon the General Conference in its dealing with Central Conferences which is not warranted by the provisions of the Constitution.

Nor can I agree with the subsidiary assumption of the majority opinion that in adopting Paragraphs 562-582 "It (the General Conference) has only granted to the Central Conferences the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries" and that "by none of these provisions does the General Conference transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it is vested."

Paragraphs 562-582—especially Paragraphs 562, 563, 565, 574, and 575—relate not simply to "rules and regulations" but by any definition to "essential legislative functions." The most cursory examination reveals that they range the gamut of most matters on which the General Conference legislates.

The understanding of the Central Conferences for the last eighteen years, since union, has been that to them broad powers to change and alter legislation enacted by the General Conference has been conferred by these and like paragraphs in preceding quadrennial editions of the Discipline. Under such understanding, as an examination of the Discipline of the Latin American Central Conference, the Africa Central Conference, and the Southern Asia Central Conference reveals, literally scores of "changes and adaptations" of the General Conference legislation have been made across the years and now exist in these editions. These practices and changes, especially in regard to power to change Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline, seemed to have received Judicial approval in Decision 121.

And, furthermore, the very wording of these Paragraphs 562-582 would indicate that the General Conference was knowingly dealing with something more than mere "rules and regulations." Note in Paragraph 562 the limitations so carefully placed upon the power of Central Conferences to make "changes and adaptations." Certainly these limitations do more than protect the General Conference against minor adjustment of "rules and regulations" for the work of the Central Conferences.

The change in Paragraph 207 made by the Latin American Central Conference was made under the provisions of Paragraph 652. The General Conference intended through this paragraph to invest in Central Conferences the power to make changes and adaptations in "legislative enactments" of the General Conference under the limitations and restrictions imposed in the paragraph itself. The General Conference was constitutionally empowered to invest such power in a Central Conference. The proposed change in the Latin American Central Conference of Paragraph 207 was within the restrictions imposed by Paragraph 562.

Although I may not agree with the advisability of this change and regret its adoption, I must hold that it was legally and constitutionally enacted.

Therefore, I respectfully dissent from the majority opinion.

In Re: The Right of a Conference Commission on World Service and Finance to Use the Service of an Interboard Council as a Budget Review Committee

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Interboard Council may serve as a budget review committee for the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance.

An Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance may utilize the services of an Interboard Council in the preparation of its report to the Annual Conference, provided the right is reserved to every conference agency to appear before the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance for the purpose of presenting its cause to said Commission.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Since the year 1951 the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference has had an Interboard Council which now operates under the provision of Paragraph 679 of the 1956 Discipline. This Interboard Council is composed of representatives of the various boards and commissions of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, the Bishop, his Cabinet, and other administrative officers. With the consent of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, this Interboard Council has acted as a budget review committee for all of the Boards and Commissions represented thereon. These Boards and Commissions annually have their representatives appear before the Interboard Council to present their financial askings for the year. The Interboard Council reviews these askings in the light of the needs and probably available funds and makes its recommendation thereupon to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance. This report is then reviewed by the Commission on World Service and Finance. The right is reserved to every Board or Commission seeking such financial assistance to appear before the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance to present its cause if it feels aggrieved by the recommendations of the Conference Interboard Council. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance after such review presents its recommended budget in the usual way to the Annual Conference for action.

On June 6, 1958, by a vote of 280 to 0, the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of The Methodist Church requested a ruling from the Judicial Council in the nature of a declaratory decision on the two following questions:

1. Does the action of the Interboard Council, in acting as a budget review committee for the Annual Conference Boards and Commissions, exceed its authorities as set forth in Paragraph 679, 1956 Discipline?
2. Can the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance delegate its authority as outlined in Paragraph 793, 1956 Discipline, provided that the Chairman or other duly authorized representative of each conference agency is still afforded the opportunity of representing the claims of his agency before the Commission on World Service and Finance?

Jurisdiction

Under Subsection 8, Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the questions thus submitted to it by the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of The Methodist Church.

Analysis

By Decision 98, the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church decided that an Annual Conference may create a Commission or Council for the purpose of correlating and promoting the work of the various agencies of the Conference, but without authority over the various boards, commissions and committees of the Conference whose duties and powers are defined in the Discipline. Thereafter, apparently to remove any doubt upon the point, the General Conference of The Methodist Church adopted Paragraph 679 of the Discipline reading as follows:

"Paragraph 679. There may be in any Annual Conference a Conference or Interboard Council composed of representatives of all Conference Boards and Commissions, the Bishop and his Cabinet, other administrative officers, and other agencies as the Conference may determine for the purpose of correlating the planning and promotion of the program of the church."

The answer to the first question stated above is negative. Paragraph 679 of the 1956 Discipline, which provides for the appointment of a Conference or Interboard Council sets forth the functions of said Council as follows: "for the purpose of correlating the planning and promotion of the program of the Church." Certainly one phase of the planning and promotion of the program of the church relates to the way in which the benevolent funds of the Conference shall be distributed among the agencies and boards of the Conference. If a Conference Interboard Council can render any assistance to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance in arriving at recommendations for the distribution of these funds, it would be engaged in the task of "correlating the planning and promotion of the program of the Church."

The answer to the second question stated above is not susceptible of such a brief or easy answer.

The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance cannot delegate its responsibilities and authority as outlined in Paragraph 793 of the 1956 Discipline. Under this paragraph of the Discipline, a Conference Commission on World Service and Finance is obligated and required to do the following things:

(a) To hear the representations of the Chairman or authorized representative of every Conference agency.

(b) To make diligent effort to secure full information regarding all Conference benevolence and service causes to see that none are neglected, jeopardized or excluded.

(c) To recommend to the Annual Conference, for its action or determination, the total amount to be apportioned for Conference causes and included in the Conference benevolence budget.

(d) To review the audited reports showing receipts and disbursements in detail of every agency making requests for financial assistance from the Annual Conference.

It is our opinion that in the performance of these responsibilities and duties, the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance may, if it so desires, receive such assistance as may be possible and as will be helpful to it from a preview of the askings of a Conference agency by an Interboard Council of the Conference. This does not constitute a delegation by the Commission on World Service and Finance of its authority but, instead, is an effort on the part of the Commission to base its report to the Conference on the best available information. In such a case, the report or recommendation of the Interboard Council is not a report of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance. It is only a recommendation to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance containing information which may be helpful to the Commission in the discharge of its duties. Such a recommendation does not bind the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, especially since the right is reserved to every agency to appear before the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and to make its representations to the Commission.

Decision

It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council:

1. That an Interboard Council which assists the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, in acting as a budget review committee for the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, does not exceed the authority vested in such a Council by Paragraph 679 of the 1956 Discipline.

2. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance cannot delegate its fundamental authority as outlined in Paragraph 793 of the 1956 Discipline. But, the utilization of the services of an Interboard Council by the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance in the preparation of its report to the Annual Conference is not a delegation of the authority of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance when the Commission on World Service and Finance receives the recommendations of the Interboard Council, affords every Conference agency seeking financial assistance from the Conference to appear before it for the purpose of representing its cause, and then submits its report to the Annual Conference.

In Re: Can a Ministerial Member of an Annual Conference, Who Has Been Placed in the Retired Relation with the Privilege of Making an Annuity Claim on the Ground of Personal Disability, Serve a Church in a Ministerial Capacity and Receive Compensation for Such Service and at the Time Draw an Annuity from the Board of Pensions of an Annual Conference

A ministerial member of an Annual Conference who has been placed in the retired relation with the privilege of making an annuity claim on the ground of personal disability may not serve a church in a ministerial capacity and receive compensation for such service and at the same time draw an annuity from the Board of Pensions of an Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council received a communication, dated July 1, 1958, from C. A. Tucker, Secretary of the Virginia Annual Conference, in which the following statement and request appears:

"Since there is some difference of opinion in regard to what constitutes physical disability as a basis for retirement in keeping with paragraph 1617 of the 1956 Discipline, we the members of the Virginia Annual Conference in regular session, June 9-12, 1958, do hereby earnestly request the Judicial Council to issue a Declaratory Ruling as to whether or not a person retiring on the grounds of physical disability can serve a church from which he receives a salary while at the same time drawing annuity from the Board of Pensions."

Jurisdiction

Under subsection 8, Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the Virginia Annual Conference.

Analysis

Reframed for the purpose of clarity, the question propounded by the Virginia Conference is, "Can a ministerial member of an Annual Conference who has been placed in the retired relation on the ground of physical disability with the privilege of making an annuity claim serve a church in a ministerial capacity and receive compensation for such service and, at the same time, draw an annuity from the Board of Pensions of the Annual Conference?"

Paragraph 668 of the Discipline, 1956 edition, provides for the establishment of a Committee on Conference Relations in each Annual Conference. Among other duties, the Committee on Conference Relations is required to make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the relations of all elders on full connection seeking to become retired members of the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1617 of the Discipline, 1956 edition, which relates to retirement, provides:

"1. The Annual Conference may place any ministerial member thereof in the retired relation, with or without his consent and irrespective of his age, if such relation be recommended by the Committee on Conference Relations.

and,

"4. Retirement with the privilege of making an annuity claim on the ground of personal disability shall be permitted only after a thorough investigation of the case by, and presentation of a medical certificate to, the Committee on Conference Relations. This certificate shall be made on a form approved by the General Board of Pensions, and shall be given by a regular medical doctor, other than the personal physician of the applicant, who has been approved by the Committee on Conference Relations. If such disability continues for more than one year, such medical certificate shall be required annually."

Subparagraph 6 of Paragraph 1617 provides that when, "because of physical or mental incapacity a minister is forced to give up his ministerial work," during the Conference year, the Conference's Board of Pensions may grant him an appropriation from an emergency fund for the remaining part of the Conference year.

Simply stated, the question propounded by the Virginia

Annual Conference is whether a minister, retired for disability which has been found to be of such a character as to make it impossible for him to serve a church in a ministerial capacity and, therefore, entitles him to an annuity, may, after retirement, perform and receive compensation for the same type of service and at the same time draw annuity payments.

Disability is defined in Webster's dictionary to mean the absence or lack of competent physical or mental powers, and the quoted language of subparagraph 6 of Paragraph 1617 indicates that, as used in subparagraph 4 of that paragraph, "personal disability" means physical or mental incapacity. It is clear, therefore, that the words "personal disability," as used in Paragraph 1617 of the Discipline, are used to denote and mean such physical or mental incapacity as make it impossible for the person involved to carry on the work of a minister in the service of a church.

It is only when a minister suffers such personal disability or lack of physical or mental powers that he is entitled to retirement on the ground of personal disability with the privilege of receiving an annuity and he is entitled to receive such annuity only so long as such incapacity continues.

It seems clear that such disability as would prevent a minister serving a church before retirement would, if present after retirement, continue to make it impossible for him to serve a church. Conversely, when such disability terminates, making it possible for him to serve a church, he would no longer be entitled to receive the annuity.

Since it is only because of his inability to serve a church that a retired minister is entitled to receive an annuity under Par. 1617 (4), it follows that when such disability ceases, the right to receive the annuity also terminates.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a ministerial member of an Annual Conference, who has been placed in the retired relation with the privilege of making an annuity claim on the ground of personal disability, may not serve a church in a ministerial capacity and receive compensation for such service and at the same time draw an annuity from the Board of Pensions of an Annual Conference.

In Re: Whether or Not Years of Service as a Full-time Approved Supply Pastor Can Be Counted as a Part of the 40 Years of Service as a Basis for Retirement as Defined in Paragraphs 1617 and 1618 of the 1956 Discipline

DIGEST OF DECISION

Full-time years of service as an approved supply pastor, prior to admission on trial by an Annual Conference, may be counted as a part of the forty years of service as a basis for the request of any ministerial member of an Annual Conference for the retired relation.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Under date of July 1, 1958, C. A. Tucker, Secretary of the Virginia Conference made request of the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Ruling as follows:

"Since there is a difference of opinion on the part of the leaders of the Church in regard to what can be counted in the forty years of service as a basis for retirement as defined in Paragraphs 1617 and 1618 of the 1956 Discipline, we the members of the Virginia Annual Conference in regular session, June 9-12, 1958, do hereby request the Judicial Council to issue a Declaratory Ruling as to whether or not Supply years can be counted as part of the forty years of service as a basis for retirement."

Jurisdiction

The request is properly before the Council under the provisions of Paragraph 914, Section 8 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

Paragraph 1617 (3) of the 1956 Discipline provides that:

"At his own request the Annual Conference may place any ministerial member therof in the retired relation, with the privilege of making an annuity claim, if he has attained age sixty-five, or has completed forty years of full-time approved service, as defined in Paragraph 1618, prior to the first day of the session of the conference to which said request is presented."

In Paragraph 1617 reference is made to the definition of "years of approved service" stated in Paragraph 1618 (1) as the basis for determining retirement eligibility.

Paragraph 1618 (1) states that:

"The term 'years of approved service' shall mean full-time service rendered in and to any appointment mentioned in Section 2 of this paragraph."

This definition of "years of approved service" does not distinguish between full-time service years on trial and in the effective relation, and full-time service years as an approved supply pastor prior to reception on trial.

Differences of opinion may arise in regard to the introductory statement of Section 2 of Paragraph 1618 which reads as follows:

"The following years of approved service on trial or in the effective relation in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church . . . are eligible to be counted for the purpose of determining the annuity claims payable thereon."

On the face of it, this statement concerns eligibility of years to be counted in determining annuity claims and in that connection it relates only to years on trial or in the effective relation. It does not refer to eligibility for retirement based on "full-time years of approved service."

The Discipline in the following paragraphs indicates that the full-time service years of an approved supply pastor are recognized as "years of approved service."

Paragraph 1630 (16) "In determining the annuity claim of a regular conference claimant, the years of approved service as a full-time approved supply pastor rendered prior to admission on trial by a conference may be counted. . . ."

Paragraph 1631 (1) "An approved supply pastor who shall have rendered not less than ten years of full-time approved service as pastor of a charge . . . furthermore, that years of full-time service rendered to a board, institution, or other agency of The Methodist Church may be counted . . ."

These paragraphs not only evidence the fact that the Discipline does apply the term "years of approved service" to the full-time service of approved supply pastors but they also further emphasize the status of such years of service by declaring that they may be counted in determining the annuity claim of a regular conference claimant.

Since the term "years of approved service" (Par. 1618) applies to the full-time service of approved supply pastors and since an annual conference may place any ministerial member thereof requesting it, in the retired relation if he has completed forty years of full-time approved service, it follows that the years spent as a full-time approved supply pastor may be counted as a basis for retirement under the provisions of Paragraph 1617, Section 3 of the 1956 Discipline.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the years of full-time service as an approved supply pastor, prior to admission on trial by an Annual Conference, may be counted in the forty years of service as a basis for the request of any ministerial member of an Annual Conference for the retired relation under the provisions of Paragraph 1617, Section 3, of the 1956 Discipline.

In Re: Request from the Wisconsin Annual Conference Relating to the Payment of Parsonage Utility Bills as Affected by the Provisions of Section 6 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1956 Discipline

DIGEST OF DECISION

The adoption of a rule by an annual conference authorizing Official Boards to pay in whole or in part such parsonage utilities as heat, light, gas, telephone and water, the amount paid not to exceed the actual cost of such utilities and requiring that the amounts paid shall be reported in an appropriate column in the statistical records of the minutes is not in conflict with the provisions of Paragraph 1624, section 6, or any other provision of the 1956 Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On the 7th day of September, 1958, the Secretary of the Judicial Council received the following communication from William V.

Stevens, Conference Secretary of the Wisconsin Annual Conference:

September 5, 1958

"Rev. Ralph M. Houston
112 Long Drive
Hempstead, New York

Dear Brother:

"As Conference Secretary I was instructed by vote of the Annual Conference to seek from the Judicial Council a ruling as to whether the following rule would be contrary to the provisions of Paragraph 1624, section 6, or any other provisions of the Discipline:

" 'Official Boards may provide for the payment, in whole or in part, of parsonage utilities (including heat, light, gas, telephone and water), the same not to be considered or reported as salary. The amount in any case not to exceed the actual cost of such utilities. Such utility items shall be reported in an appropriate column in the statistical records of the Minutes.'

"I shall appreciate your caring for this matter for us, and your informing us of your decision.

Most sincerely,
/s/ William V. Stevens
William V. Stevens"

Jurisdiction

While the communication does not use the specific words—"declaratory decision" the Judicial Council believes it is correct in assuming that the above and foregoing communication is a request for a declaratory decision and under the provisions of sub-section 8 of Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline it has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question submitted.

Analysis

Paragraph 1624, section 6, of the 1956 Discipline reads as follows:

"It shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment. Failure to comply with this section shall be deemed disobedience to the order and discipline of The Methodist Church. The Conference Board of Pensions may recommend to the conference that the pastor's annuity claim be disallowed for the year during which such bonus or supplementary compensation was so received."

A question similar to the one involved in this matter was before this Council in Decision No. 51, rendered on May 3, 1948. In that case the Council held that "an allowance for 'travel expenses' to pastors is not to be regarded as supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment under the terms of Paragraph 1624 (Discipline 1944) providing always that such item represents an actual expense for the purpose stated, and is not a cover-up for additional salary paid to the pastor."

The Council in Decision No. 51 apparently adopted the definition of "bonus" stated by Dr. Thomas A. Stafford, then Secretary of the Board of Pensions (Illinois Corporation) to wit—"it (bonus) does not have any reference to a man's expense account. It is an additional payment on salary that is concealed through some conspiracy or arrangement between the people on the local charge and the pastor so that he receives more salary than he reports, the idea being to keep down the apportionment for conference claimants. That is all that is involved. It does not involve expense accounts or anything of that kind."

An examination of the Disciplines of The Methodist Church for the years 1944, 1948, 1952 and 1956 reveals that the provisions of Section 4 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1944 and 1948 Discipline are identical. Identical language is used in Section 5 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1952 Discipline.

The language used in Section 6 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1956 Discipline is also identical with the language used in the 1944, 1948 and 1952 Disciplines, except that the words "The Conference Board of Pensions" is used instead of the words "The Board of Conference Claimants." This change in no manner affects the meaning of said section.

Our conclusions above stated is supported by Par. 829 of the 1956 Discipline which states that "the total of all travel, automobile and other expenses allowed and paid to a pastor in addition to his salary shall be reported for insertion in the journal of the Annual Conference in a separate column from that of the pastor's salary and adjacent thereto. . . ." This Council holds that the language used in this paragraph would also cover such parsonage utility expenses as are listed in this matter.

This Council therefore concludes in this case that since there has been no material change in this particular section of the Discipline since the rendering of Decision No. 51 the proposed rule set forth in the communication from the Wisconsin Annual Conference does not violate the provisions of section 6 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1956 Discipline.

This Council reaffirms the conclusions reached in Decision No. 51 and states that in the legislation on this subject matter in section 6 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1956 Discipline, as well as in any future legislation relating to the same, it should be borne in mind that every case must be decided on its own facts and that the rule to be applied is whether or not any "expense" item, no matter what the same includes, is intended to be a cover-up for additional salary or compensation paid the pastor.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that a rule adopted by an Annual Conference authorizing Official Boards to provide for the payment, in whole or in part, of parsonage utilities (including heat, light, gas, telephone and water) the amount paid not to exceed the actual cost of such utilities, and providing that such sums need not be reported as salary, but must be reported in an appropriate column in the statistical records of the minutes, is not in conflict with the provisions of Section 6 of Paragraph 1624 of the 1956 Discipline or any other provision of said Discipline.

In Re: Whether Appointment of a Member on Trial of an Annual Conference to Attend School May Be Considered as Fulfilling the Disciplinary Requirement of "Regular Appointment Under the Supervision of a District Superintendent"

DIGEST OF DECISION

Appointment to attend school as provided for in Paragraph 432 of the 1956 Discipline, Section 7, does not meet the requirements of Paragraph 341 of the 1956 Discipline, (a) relating to qualifications for admission into full connection in an Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

During the session of the Little Rock Annual Conference held June 3 and 6, 1958, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, the following resolution was adopted and duly forwarded to the secretary of the Judicial Council:

"WHEREAS: there has come to the attention of the Board of Ministerial Training the fact that there are varying interpretations of the relationship of Paragraph 341 to Paragraph 432, Sections 1 through 7, and

"WHEREAS: to carry out effectively the work of the Board of Ministerial Training this confusion must be eliminated,

"BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: That the Little Rock Annual Conference support its Board of Ministerial Training in its request for a Judicial Council ruling for the purpose of clarifying the relationship of the afore-mentioned Paragraphs in the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the request for clarification read as follows: 'The Little Rock Annual Conference respectfully requests the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to clarify the relationship of Paragraph 341, to Paragraph 432, Sections 1 through 7.

"'TO WIT: Can Section 7 of Paragraph 432 (appointment to attend school) be considered as having met the requirement of two years of service while on trial under the supervision of a District Superintendent.'

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Ministerial Training
Fred R. Harrison, Chairman
Clint Burleson, Secretary"

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1956 Discipline, this request is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Paragraph 432 of the 1956 Discipline has to do with provisions and limitations which are to be observed by the Bishop when fixing the appointments and includes under Section 7, "He may appoint a preacher on trial or a member of an Annual Conference who desires to attend school to any college or school of theology accredited or approved by the University Senate."

Paragraph 341 of the 1956 Discipline sets forth the requirements for admission of a member on trial into full connection in an Annual Conference. Among the requirements is that he must have "served under regular appointment under supervision of a District Superintendent in one of the positions specified in Paragraph 432, Sections 1-6, for at least two years since being admitted on trial."

However, it is clear that for at least two years of his trial period, whether in school or not, the candidate for full connection must serve in some appointive relationship to an Annual Conference during which his service shall be supervised and evaluated by a District Superintendent. This relationship may be in any of the positions to which a Bishop may make an appointment as specified in Paragraph 432 of the 1956 Discipline, Sections 1 to 6, in which there is no mention made of the appointment "to attend school."

The very fact that paragraph 341 of the 1956 Discipline specifically limits the appointments by which this qualification for full connection in the Annual Conference may be fulfilled to those included in Paragraph 432, Sections 1-6, would seem conclusive in determining that appointment under Section 7 of this Paragraph would not in itself meet the requirement of Paragraph 341 (a).

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that appointment to attend school as provided in Paragraph 432 of the 1956 Discipline, Section 7, may not be considered to have met the requirements of two years of service under the supervision of the District Superintendent as required in Paragraph 341 (a) of the 1956 Discipline for admission into full connection in an Annual Conference.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Matthew W. Clair in the Lexington Conference

DIGEST OF DECISION

When the provisions of the Discipline concerning appeals from episcopal decision on questions of law (Paragraphs 43(2) and 908), or concerning episcopal decisions of law made in response to questions properly submitted (Paragraphs 40, 43(3) and 909), are not followed the Judicial Council must decline to take jurisdiction.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following is a quotation from the Journal of the 1958 session of the Lexington Annual Conference, the daily proceedings for May 16—

"Re LaFurd Young: The Secretary was asked by the Chairman to read the statements on LaFurd Young as printed in the 1957 Journal, page 31.

"A report on the progress of LaFurd Young was given by the Superintendent, C. T. R. Nelson. Mr. Young has been enrolled in school this past year—correspondence Courses of Study. He failed to complete two of the Courses.

"A question was asked as to what the Conference could do. The Chairman stated that the only alternative is to locate him—as the Conference did give him an additional year last year.

"Alfred Clay asked if he could be located since he is an effective minister and a full member of the Conference. The Chairman stated that a Judicial Council decision was made on this in the North Arkansas Conference. The decision was that a full member of the Conference could be located. The Chairman stated further that legally the Conference was not in a position last year to grant more time.

"A motion was made by Alfred Clay, seconded by M. E. Nelson that LaFurd B. Young be left in the same status for another year. Question called. Further discussion followed—with the question asked as to whether or not he could be located with the understanding that when he completes his studies that he be restored. Paragraph 379 of the Discipline was cited which states that he can be re-admitted by 2/3 vote of the Conference. Several spoke against and for the motion. Previous question called.
Voting—For 42; Against 29. Motion carried.

"Charles Golden offered a motion that the minority group be privileged to request a Judicial Council ruling on the motion. The Chairman ruled this out of order, as he intends to do this anyway—since the action is irregular—and was done while he was presiding.

"With the passing of the motion on Young, his status remains the same—and he is left in the hands of his District Superintendent."

Bishop Clair sent to the Judicial Council a ruling that LaFurd Young must be located regardless of the vote of the Annual Conference, together wth a syllabus of the question involved including the above certified excerpt from the Journal of the Lexington Annual Conference.

Jurisdiction

There are several ways in which a question of law may come to the Judicial Council from an Annual Conference:

1. As a request voted by the Annual Conference for a declaratory decision (Par. 914).
2. As an appeal voted by one-fifth of the members of the Conference from an episcopal ruling on a question of law (Par. 43 (2) and 908). Considering the usage of the Church, we interpret these sections to apply to an appeal from a ruling involving the law of the Church which a Bishop makes from the chair during the parliamentary procedure of the Conference session.
3. As an episcopal decision of law made in response to a question submitted in writing at a session of the Annual Conference which then comes to the Judicial Council for affirmation, modification or reversal (Par. 40, 43 (3) and 909). Considering the usage of the Church, we interpret these sections to apply to a ruling by a Bishop on a question involving the law of the Church which has been presented in writing at the session of the Conference and which may or may not be concerned with the parliamentary procedure of the Conference session.

Under the record of the journal of the Lexington Annual Conference before us there is no indication that any one of these procedures was followed. There was no request voted by the Conference for a declaratory decision; there was no appeal voted from any episcopal ruling made in the Conference session; there was no question of law submitted in writing at the Conference session. We point out that there is no procedure in the Discipline by which a Bishop, personally, may request a decision from the Judicial Council.

The Judicial Council on several occasions has declined to take jurisdiction where the provisions of the Discipline were not carefully followed (see Decision No. 66). It takes this position reluctantly but with the conviction that such provisions are for the protection of the proper judicial procedures of the Church.

Decision

The Judicial Council, therefore, holds that it has no jurisdiction in this matter.

In Re: Constitutionality of the Adoption of Amendments VII and VIII

DIGEST OF DECISION

Amendments VII and VIII to the Constitution of The Methodist Church were constitutionally adopted.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 7, 1957, Gordon B. Duncan, Assistant Book Editor, reported to the Council of Bishops as follows:

"In the editing of the 1956 Discipline there came to light the fact that two of the three amendments to the Constitution announced by the Council of Bishops shortly before the 1956 General Conference were not validly adopted. Accordingly I am herein reporting the fact to the Council of Bishops as presumably the proper body to take action in such a situation.

"The amendments involved are Amendments VII and VIII, concerned with elections of delegates by Provisional Annual Conferences; and their text appears in paragraphs 7 and 24, respectively, of the 1956 Discipline, as voted on by the Annual Conference members and announced by the Council of Bishops. However, the amendments voted on by the Annual Conference members differed from those proposed by the 1952 General Conference at a very important point—namely, the election of General Conference delegates. This key provision of the two amendments as supposedly adopted was never voted on by the General Conference.

"The record of the action of the 1952 General Conference on these two amendments appears in the 1952 Daily Christian Advocate, pages 630-31. For your convenience I enclose a transcript of it. This action was taken on the final day without previous notice or any written statement, and the change to be made was stated in quite vague terms. The one definite idea laid before the conference was that Paragraphs 7 and 24 were to be changed to agree with a previous amendment in Paragraph 13. From this record it is obvious that the conference members in their vote intended on actual alteration in the provisions of the Constitution, but merely an editorial harmonization.

"Paragraph 13 applies only to election of delegates to Jurisdictional Conferences, and accordingly the previous amendment referred to (No. IV) is limited to such delegates. On the other hand Paragraphs 7 and 24 apply to delegates to the General Conference and the Central Conferences in addition to the Jurisdictional Conferences. Apparently those who prepared the wording sent down to the Annual Conferences did not notice the difference in breadth of application and thus inadvertently introduced the new provisions about delegates to the General Conference and to the Central Conferences."

On December 4, 1957, the Council of Bishops through its Secretary, Bishop Roy H. Short, did request from the Judicial Council "a declaratory decision on the constitutionality of the amendments."

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council assumes jurisdiction in this matter under Article II, 1, of Division Four of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Par. 43, 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

The Judicial Council interprets the paragraph of the Constitution which deals with amendments (Par. 10 (1 and 2) of the 1956 Discipline) to mean that the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of The Methodist Church requires: (1) That the exact wording of any proposed amendment be given to the General Conference; (2) That a count vote on this exact wording be taken, with the vote for and the vote against announced to the conference and recorded in the official journal of the conference; (3) That the vote as taken, counted, announced, and recorded shall indicate a two-thirds majority of those present and voting, a quorum being present; (4) That the proposed amendment be voted on under exactly the same wording in the Annual Conferences; (5) That the proposed amendment be approved by a two-thirds (or in the case of an amendment affecting the first Restrictive Rule, a three-fourths) majority of all the members of the Annual Conferences present and voting; (6) That the votes as cast in the Annual Conferences be canvassed and announced by the Council of Bishops.

The official journals of the General Conferences of 1952 and 1956 indicate that each of these requirements was met in the adoption of Amendments VII and VIII to the Constitution of The Methodist Church.

We note that the wording of the two amendments as recorded in the official journal of the General Conference of 1952 differs from the wording as given in The Daily Christian Advocate of that session. But the Journal indicates that the record of proceedings of the session in which the two proposed amendments were adopted was approved by the General Conference. Neither the Daily Christian Advocate nor the Official Journal of either the 1952 or the 1956 General Conference shows any objection raised at any time to the accuracy and correctness of the Official Journal record of the proceedings of the session in which the proposed amendments were adopted.

The Judicial Council must assume the official records of the General Conference to be correct. If they are not correct, the General Conference alone has responsibility for their correction.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that according to the record contained in the official journals of the General Conferences of 1952 and 1956 Amendments VII and VIII to the Constitution of The Methodist Church were duly and constitutionally adopted.

In Re: Central Conference Powers with Respect to Full Clergy Rights for Women

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Central Conference may not change General Conference legislation regarding the granting of full clergy rights for women.

A Central Conference may not refuse to accept a woman who has been given full clergy rights by an Annual Conference.

A bishop has the power to transfer a woman ministerial member of an Annual Conference to any other Annual Conference provided he has the consent of the bishop of the receiving Conference, and provided the ministerial member agrees to said transfer.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a meeting of the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, action was taken to request a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council on the following questions:

1. May a Central Conference change General Conference legislation regarding the granting of full clergy rights for women?
2. May a Central Conference refuse to accept a woman who has been granted full clergy rights as a member of an Annual Conference when another Annual Conference has elected her a member of that Annual Conference?
3. Does a bishop have the power to transfer a woman member of an Annual Conference (having full clergy rights) to an Annual Conference which has refused to admit women into full clergy rights or has not considered the subject?

Since Question No. 2 seemed somewhat unclear, the Secretary of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas was asked to interpret more full its meaning. In reply to this request, the following statement was received from the Secretary.

"By this question we mean, for example, if a woman were granted full clergy rights in one Central Conference could another Central Conference refuse to acept her or could the Central Conference in which she received full clergy rights in one annual conference refuse to permit her to be transferred to another annual conference in the same Central Conference in which women have not been accepted on the terms of full clergy rights?"

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (2) of the 1956 Discipline, the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas has the right to request a declaratory decision and therefore the Judicial Council has jurisdiction.

Analysis

The General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas has requested a declaratory decision on three questions. We shall deal with them in order.

The first of these is "May a Central Conference change General Conference legislation regarding the granting of full clergy rights for women?" We assume that by the phrase "change General Conference legislation" is meant to pass legislation of such a kind as to negate legislation on the same subject passed by the General Conference.

Paragraph 303, adopted by the General Conference of 1956, reads as follows:

"Women are included in all provisions of the Discipline referring to the ministry."

Paragraph 562, of the 1956 Discipline, reads in part as follows:

"A Central Conference . . . shall have power to decide the official status and ordination of women; provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church."

The question at issue is whether or not a Central Conference, under the authority of Paragraph 562 quoted above, may pass legislation denying full clergy rights to women in contradiction to the legislation passed by the General Conference as recorded in Paragraph 303 granting women full clergy rights.

Division two, Section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church provides that "the General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional and in the exercise of said power shall have authority as follows:

. . . .

2. To define and fix the qualifications and duties of elders, deacons, supply preachers, local preachers, exhorters and deaconesses."

The section of the Constitution quoted above clearly indicates that the General Conference has full legislative power concerning the qualifications for membership in an Annual Conference and ordination.

In Decision No. 147 the Judicial Council held that "the General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church." Were a Central Conference to pass legislation denying full clergy rights to women when the General Conference has adopted specific legislation giving them these rights, the Central Conference would be assuming power to reject the essential legislation of the General Conference. The Judicial Council in Decision No. 147 declared that this a Central Conference cannot do. We here reiterate and confirm that opinion.

A study of the history of the Central Conferences would seem to support the conclusion that no such sweeping power was intended to be given a Central Conference by the General Conference. Reference to a Central Conference, then called a Central Mission Conference, is found first in the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church in 1884. Power was there given to a Central Mission Conference to "take under its supervision the Educational, Publishing and other Connectional interests and work as may be committed to it by the Annual Conferences or Missions; but never in contravention of the book of Discipline or Rules of the General Conference. . . ." This provision remained in almost identical language in every Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church until 1924. In that year additional powers were granted as follows:

"A Central Conference shall have power to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require, regarding church membership, special advices, worship, and the local ministry and shall have power to decide the official status and ordination of women, provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the book of Discipline."

In the Discipline of 1932 of the Methodist Episcopal Church, provision for Central Conferences is found for the first time in the Constitution, as the result of an amendment passed by the General Conference of 1928 and ratified by the Annual Conferences during the Quadrennium. However, the power granted to Central Conferences by General Conference legislation remained substantially the same and was still limited by the phrase "provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Discipline."

At the time of Union these provisions for Central Conferences were carried over into the new church, including the limitation of their power to actions not contrary to the general book of Discipline of The Methodist Church. The General Conference of 1944 raised a Commission to study the work of the Methodist Church Overseas and to recommend changes in legislation regarding that work. This Commission recommended a number of changes with respect to Central Conferences to the General Conference of 1948 through its Committee on Conferences. Among them was a change in the last sentence of Paragraph 578 which substituted the words "Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church" for "the Discipline of The Methodist Church" so that the Paragraph now reads in part:

"The Central Conference . . . shall have power to decide the official status and ordination of women; provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church."

This change was passed by the General Conference without any questions being asked from the floor as to its meaning or implications, and with no debate whatever.

The question naturally arises, entirely apart from whether or not it has the right to delegate legislative power, as to whether the General Conference intended to make so radical a change and give such sweeping powers to a Central Conference which might involve legislation in direct contradiction to that passed by the General Conference, without asking for some explanation of the reasons therefor, or without some debate on the floor of the General Conference. It is our feeling that the General Conference did not so intend.

For the reasons given above, our answer to question No. 1 is that a Central Conference may not pass legislation which will change that passed by the General Conference with respect to full clergy rights for women.

The answer to question No. 2 as interpreted by the Secretary of the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas is likewise in the negative.

Section VII, Article II, which is paragraph 22 of the Constitution, reads in part as follows:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserve to it the right to vote . . . on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers. . . ."

Paragraphs 323 through 345 of the 1956 Discipline set forth the steps and the requirements which must be met by a candidate for admission into the membership of an Annual Conference.

A Central Conference neither accepts nor can refuse to accept a minister whether that minister be a man or woman. This is a power reserved to an Annual Conference.

The second part of the question as interpreted by the secretary asks whether a Central Conference can refuse to permit a woman who is a member of an Annual Conference to be transferred to another Annual Conference within the same Central Conference.

A Central Conference has nothing whatever to do with the transfer of a member from one Annual Conference to another and therefore cannot refuse to permit a woman who is a member of an Annual Conference to be transferred to any other Annual Conference. The power to transfer a ministerial member from one Annual Conference to another is reserved to bishops as set forth in the answer to question 3 as indicated below.

Question No. 3 reads as follows:

"Does a bishop have the power to transfer a woman member of an Annual Conference (having full clergy rights) to an Annual Conference which has refused to admit women into full clergy rights or have not considered the subject?"

Paragraph 8, Article IV (5), of the Constitution provides that one of the legislative powers of the General Conference is:

"To define and fix the powers, duties and privileges of the episcopacy. . . ."

Paragraph 431 (7) lists as one of the duties of a bishop:

"To transfer with the consent of the bishop of the receiving Annual Conference a ministerial member of one Annual Conference to another, provided the ministerial member agrees to said transfer. . . ."

Paragraph 443 reads as follows:

"A bishop elected by a Central Conference shall have, within the bounds of the Central Conference by which he is elected or within which he is administering, authority similar to that exercised by bishops elected by or administering in a Jurisdictional Conference."

The above quotations clearly indicate that a bishop of either a Jurisdiction or a Central Conference has the power to transfer a member from one Annual Conference to any other Annual Conference with the consent of the bishop of the receiving Annual Conference provided the ministerial member agrees to said transfer. There appear to be no other limitations to this power. The answer, therefore, to question No. 3 is that a bishop does have the power to transfer a woman member of an Annual Conference to any other Annual Conference, provided he has the consent of the bishop of the receiving Conference and of the ministerial member involved in the transfer.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that:

(1) A Central Conference may not adopt legislation which will change that already adopted by the General Conference with reference to full clergy rights for women.

(2) A Central Conference may not refuse to accept a woman who has been granted full clergy rights as a member of an Annual Conference. Neither can a Central Conference refuse to allow a woman member of an Annual Conference to be transferred to another Annual Conference with the same Central Conference.

(3) A bishop has the power to transfer a woman ministerial member of an Annual Conference to any other Annual Conference provided he has the consent of the bishop of the receiving Annual Conference and provided the ministerial member agrees to said transfer.

Dissenting Opinion

Respectfully and regretfully I must dissent from the opinion of my colleagues. Since I consider judicial opinions in regard to the powers of Central Conferences of prime importance to World Methodism, I am impelled to state the grounds of my dissent.

The majority opinion in the present case is based on two affirmations: (1) the reiteration and confirmation of Judicial Council Decision No. 147 that "the General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been vested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church"; (2) that the General Conference of 1948 in its action making the change in the last sentence of Paragraph 578 by which the words "Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church" were substituted for "the Discipline of The Methodist Church" did not intend to make so radical a change and give such sweeping powers to a Central Conference as might involve legislation in direct contradiction to that passed by the General Conference, without asking for some explanation of the reason therefor, or without some debate on the floor of the General Conference.

I

I have already stated in a dissent to Judicial Council Opinion No. 147 reasons for holding that the General Conference has been deliberately and with intention empowered by the Constitution of The Methodist Church "to delegate its legislative powers" to Central Conferences within the constitutional legislative limitations imposed upon the General Conference itself. But since the present opinion contends that a "study of the history of the Central Conferences would seem to support the conclusion that no such sweeping power was intended to be given a Central Conference by the General Conference," it seems well to amplify the statement in my dissent to Judicial Council Opinion No. 147 concerning the intent of the 1924 General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church in adoption of the two basic amendments re Central Conferences.

It is pointed out in the statement that "These amendments were freely and completely discussed over a period of days before their adoption by the General Conference, and the whole tenor of the discussion indicates that general thinking gave widest interpretation to the powers with which the General Conference would be invested in dealing with Central Conferences."

Of these two amendments the first was basic and is pertinent to our present problem. This amendment which was approved by a vote of 766 in favor and 64 opposed and was ratified in 1929 by the members of the Annual Conferences of The Methodist Episcopal Church with a vote of 18,490 for and 494 against provides:

Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences and Missions in such numbers as the General Conference, by a two-thirds vote, shall determine, may be organized by the General Conference into Central Conferences with such powers as the General Conference, by a two-thirds vote, shall prescribe. (Emphases supplied.) See The Daily Christian Advocate, General Conference, May, 1928, 369.

From this amendment derives the language and provisions of Paragraph 19 of the present Constitution of The Methodist Church, introductory item, providing: "The Central Conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference." (Emphases supplied.) See the Methodist Discipline, 1956, Par. 19.

The intent of the General Conference in its adoption of this amendment is indicated by the debate in the 1928 General Conference and by discussion of Central Conferences in the General Conference of 1932 in which both proponents and opponents interpreted the intent of the proposed amendments and the implementing legislation as means by which: to "give larger independence, larger self-determination to the various branches of our Church in foreign lands"; "our work in foreign fields may be allowed to develop itself with full autonomy"; "every nation may mold a Methodism after the fashion of their own national life"; to afford the means without which "the churches afield can never develop into self-respecting, vigorous, independent organizations"; to give the "members of our church in other lands . . . the self-determination, the independence, the autonomy for which they are asking." See Daily Christian Advocate, May, 1928; L. O. Hartman, p. 140; Frank A. Horne, p. 341;

W. A. C. Hughes, pp. 364-365; E. F. Lee, p. 365; L. O. Hartman, p. 369.

This interpretation was reiterated in the succeeding General Conference by the chairman of the Commission of Twenty-five in reviewing and interpreting the action of the 1928 General Conference in adopting and the subsequent action of the Annual Conferences in ratifying the two Constitutional Amendments re Central Conferences, as he declared "it was necessary to develop some technique of change so that adaptations could be made upon the foreign fields to meet changing conditions." He also stated:

We were interested in the Central Conference legislation, in keeping open certain avenues through which the originality, the originality of the Chinese, the originality of the Indian, the originality of the people in Latin America might flow, and so on; and you, by your action in establishing the Central Conferences with certain powers, did that very thing. Upon these principles, this legislation rests. In other words, it is an attempt to make it possible for an organism, this church, to adapt itself to changing environment.

. . . There is a demand for self-government. Self-government may be achieved by independence. Japan, Mexico—it is possible also for self-government to be achieved in another way, and that is this: Perhaps the best phrase to suggest it is the phrase that is used in India today—or used all over the British Empire or Commonwealth of Nations—when they use the term "dominion status." See The Daily Christian Advocate, May, 1932; G. Bromley Oxnam, p. 480.

II

The second assumption inherent in the majority opinion concerns the intent of the General Conference of 1948 in the legislation changing the wording of Paragraph 578 (now Paragraph 562). Any judicial body has grave responsibility to interpret legislation in accordance with the intent of the enacting body. Let it be noted that the change in this paragraph was recommended in the report of the Commission on Central Conferences which had been appointed in 1944 and presumably had had ample time in the four intervening years to give full consideration to the import of proposed changes. Furthermore, on the second day of the session of the General Conference, April 29, 1948, the report on request of the Commission on Central Conferences was referred to the Standing Committee on Conferences for consideration and recommendation. Seven days later the report of the Committee on Conferences was printed in The Daily Christian Advocate containing the recommendation that the change in Par. 578, among many others, should be made. The report indicates that this committee had a membership of 49; that 49 were present when the report was adopted in the committee; that 49 voted for the report and 0 voted against. The next day the report was considered by the General Conference during a special order of the day, previously established for that purpose. Lengthy discussion ensued; numerous questions were asked; several amendments to the report were adopted. The chairman of the Commission on Central Conferences, Leon T. Moore, called specific attention to the changes in Paragraph 578. No question was asked and no objections were raised to these changes in Paragraph 578 by any member of the General Conference.

In view of these facts, I cannot agree with the majority conclusion:

The question naturally arises, entirely apart from whether it has the right to delegate legislative power, as to whether the General Conference intended to make so radical a change and give such sweeping powers to a Central Conference which might involve legislation in direct contradiction to that passed by the General Conference, without asking for some explanation of the reasons therefor, or without some debate on the floor of the General Conference. It is our feeling that the General Conference did not so intend. (Emphases supplied.)

There would seem to be no doubt that the General Conference had ample opportunity to understand the import of this change in Paragraph 578 of the 1948 Discipline (now Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline) and did intend "to make so radical a change and give such sweeping powers to a Central Conference." Hence I must conclude that these powers were both constitutionally and intentionally bestowed upon Central Conferences by this legislation.

III

Furthermore, it would appear that such powers were, prior to the enunciation of Judicial Council Decision No. 147, uniformly recognized by this Council and have formed a part of the developing constitutional pattern for autonomy in the structure of Methodism overseas. In Decision No. 121, July 31, 1955, this Council specifically states, "under this authority (i.e., Paragraph 578) the Philippines Central Conference could change or modify for all the Annual Conferences within its boundaries, the provisions in the Discipline which give an annual conference the right and power to grant ordination to a woman as a local preacher." (Emphases supplied.) Again, on October 18, 1957, this Council under its Decision No. 142 unanimously ruled that the Latin American Central Conference could not revise Paragraph 127 of the Discipline under Paragraph 562 (Paragraph 578 of the 1952 and 1948 Disciplines) because the revisions proposed were "contrary to the Constitution of The Methodist Church," and not on any basis that Paragraph 562 was itself of questionable constitutionality. (Emphases supplied.) Not until the enunciation of Judicial Council Decision No. 147 and the present decision had there been any intimation that Paragraph 578 (now 562), when construed to authorize any changes or adaptations beyond mere "rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their (i.e., Central Conferences) boundaries," might itself be unconstitutional.

From the 1928 General Conference of The Methodist

Episcopal Church until the issuance of Judicial Council Decision No. 147 there had been a progressive constitutional development in the autonomy of Central Conferences under the Constitution of The Methodist Church and the legislation of successive General Conferences. Under this development many legislative changes have been enacted by Central Conferences including changes in the membership, composition, organization, and functions of quarterly conferences and official boards, conditions, duties, and qualifications for church members and ministers, and the institution and use of organizations, such as Class Meetings, now absent from the Discipline of The Methodist Church. Such changes and others of even greater import so long as safe-guarded by the restrictions of Paragraph 562 permit diversity in unity in a world-wide Methodism which ought not to bear, as W. A. C. Hughes so aptly said in the General Conference of 1928, the label of "made in America." The ruling that Central Conferences have no power to make changes in Methodist polity except in regard to mere "rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries"—a power by the way granted specifically to them by the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Article IV, Item 5, Section V, and not needing Paragraph 562 or any other General Conference legislation to make it effective—must eventuate in an overseas Methodism designed and dominated by the American majority.

Dissenting Opinion

To Decision No. 155

We must respectfully dissent from the majority decision in this case insofar as it applies to Question Number 1, "May a Central Conference change General Conference legislation regarding the granting of Full Clergy Rights for Women?"

The majority has referred to Judicial Council Decision Number 147 as part of the argument to sustain its decision. We hold that it was not the intent of Decision 147, however, to deny to the General Conference its right to adopt specific legislation for the regulation of the work in Central Conferences. While Decision Number 147 declares that "the General Conference cannot delegate its legislative powers or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which it has been invested under the Constitution of The Methodist Church," it also clearly recognizes the power of the General Conference to grant to Central Conferences "the right to make rules and regulations for the administering of the work within their boundaries as conditions require," and states that the General Conference in the Discipline has "spelled out with particularity the administrative areas in which the Central Conferences may apply these permitted 'changes and adaptations.'" Included in the Discipline of 1956, Paragraphs 556 to 581, are a number of such "Administrative areas" in which the General Conference has, by its own legislative enactment, granted specific powers to Central Conferences.

Paragraph 562 specifically grants to Central Conferences the "power to decide the official status and ordination of women; provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church." This grant of power was given to the Central Conferences by the proper legislative functioning of the General Conference and, unless shown to be contrary to the Constitution or General Rules of The Methodist Church, must be in full force and effect unless changed by further act of the General Conference. It is significant that the adoption of the provision referred to in Paragraph 562 giving to the Central Conferences the "power to decide the official status and ordination of women" was coincident with the enactment of General Conference legislation of the Methodist Episcopal Church permitting the ordination of women as local preachers in 1924. The clear implication is that conditions relative to the leadership of women in the church differ so widely in the Conferences outside the United States that each Central Conference should be permitted to make its own decision concerning the status and ordination of women in the light of attitudes and conditions existing within its own boundaries.

The admission of women into an Annual Conference, we hold, is a part of the inclusive language of the Paragraph under question which covers "the official status and ordination of women." This becomes clear when it is remembered that ordination is a prerequisite to admission into the membership of an Annual Conference. If, therefore, a Central Conference is empowered to control the ordination of women within its boundaries, it necessarily follows that such control must extend also to membership in the Annual Conference, entrance into which is conditioned upon ordination.

If the question which has been submitted to us must be construed literally, "may a Central Conference change General Conference legislation regarding the granting of Full Clergy Rights for Women?" the answer would be in the negative since as stated by the Council in its Decision Number 147, "The General Conference of The Methodist Church is the legislative body of the Church. There is no other legislative body in the Church." If, however, as we believe, the question concerns the right of a Central Conference to exercise the powers granted unto it by a specific legislative enactment of the General Conference and to decide for itself whether admission to Annual Conference shall be open to women within its own boundaries, we must hold that a Central Conference does possess this power as specifically set forth in Paragraph 562 of the 1956 Discipline.

In Re: Request for the Definition of the Terms "Part-Time" and "Full-Time" as Applied to Approved Supply Pastors

DIGEST OF DECISION

The determination of the meaning of the words "part-time approved supply pastor" and "full-time approved supply pastor" as used in Paragraph 317 (2) and (3) of the Discipline (1956 edition) is a legislative matter within the province of the General Conference and is not a judicial matter to be determined by the Judicial Council.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1956 Area Workshops of the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training of the Annual Conferences, the following Resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, the members of the ——— Workshop of Chairmen and Registrars of Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications have found themselves confronted with the problem of interpreting the meaning of the terms 'Part-time' and 'Full-time' as applied to Approved Supply Pastors in Paragraph 317, Sections 2 and 3 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

"Be It Resolved, that we hereby request the Department of Ministerial Education of The General Board of Education to Petition The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to issue a Declaratory Decision as to what constitutes a 'Part-time' and what constitutes a 'Full-time Approved Supply Pastor.' "

Subsequently, Dr. J. Richard Spann, Director of the Department of In-service Training of the Division of Educational Institutes of The General Board of Education, forwarded a copy of such a Resolution to The Judicial Council with the request it make the decision indicated. The General Board of Education later joined in that request.

Jurisdiction

We have jurisdiction to make the decision requested under Paragraph 914 (2) of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Analysis

Paragraph 317 of the 1956 Discipline provides inter alia:

"2. Part-time approved supply pastors (other than students as defined in section 1). Unless ordained elders, these shall complete at least two books annually in the ministerial course of study under the Department of Ministerial Education. (See Paragraph 307, section 2.)

"3. Full-time approved supply pastors. Unless ordained elders, these shall take the ministerial course of study under the Department of Ministerial Education and complete the entire course within eight years. (See Paragraph 307, section 2.)"

Neither that paragraph nor any other paragraph of the Discipline gives any definition of the terms "Part-time" or "Full-time." We are informed some Annual Conferences consider any supply pastor who has other employment as "Part-time" while others consider as "Part-time" one who serves a church or churches that pay less than such Annual Conference's minimum salary.

We are now requested to give an opinion as to the meaning of the terms mentioned above. It should be noted that the request submitted to us does not arise out of any case legally pending before the Council involving the rights of persons or institutions but is, rather, a mere request for a definition. It is entirely possible that it would be good if the terms in question (and, for that matter, all other common terms) might have or be susceptible of universal and definite meaning and acceptance; however, the wide variation in the use of words and phrases renders definition and construction exceedingly difficult if not impossible except in definite cases and under well-defined circumstances.

Unfortunately, the Discipline itself contains no definition of the terms which are questioned in this appeal to the Council, nor is there any language in the Discipline indicating a legislative intent which might be of assistance in arriving at the will of the legislative body in this connection.

As was said by this Council in its Decision No. 26, the General Conference is thoroughly competent to define such terms as it desires, and it is our opinion that it is the responsibility of the General Conference to supply this deficiency if one exists and that this is not a question of judicial interpretation.

Decision

It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council that the determination of the meaning of the words "part-time approved supply pastor" and "full-time approved supply pastor" as used in Paragraph 317 (2) and (3) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church is a legislative matter within the province of the General Conference and is not a judicial matter to be settled by the Judicial Council.

October 17, 1958

Dissenting Opinion

Regretfully I must dissent from the last three paragraphs of the Council's analysis and its decision. One of the main functions of a judicial body is the construing of legislation and the words used in it. It is manifestly impractical for a legislative body to define every word it uses in its enactments, and, of course, in general they do not attempt to do so. Nor is there always in their proceedings an indication of their intention as to the meaning of undefined words they have used. This is why judicial bodies so frequently are called on to do the defining.

The Discipline recognizes this as one of our functions and responsibilities when it directs us in proper cases as to General Conference Legislation in Paragraph 914 to make declaratory decisions "as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline" when any such legislation "appears to be subject to more than one interpretation" or seems "to be of doubtful meaning." (italics mine). Obviously we cannot do this without determining the meaning of the words used by the General Conference even if it has not defined them and has not indicated its intention as to their meaning.

The rule of construction used in the civil courts, when a legislature has not defined a word and has not given any indication of the intended meaning, is that the word is presumed to have been used in its common and ordinary meaning. Courts usually refer, as the Council on occasion has, to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, for a definition of the meaning of a word. The first definitions Webster gives for "part" is "one of the portions, equal or unequal, into which anything is divided, or regarded as divided; something less than a whole . . . ," and it seems to me that is the way the word is commonly and ordinarily understood. Since each of the phrases under consideration contain the word "time," time must be the criterion rather than other employment or lack of minimum salary as the majority opinion indicates some Annual Conferences consider. It then seems to me to follow that a "part-time approved supply pastor" is an approved supply pastor who devotes a portion or something less than the whole of his time to pastoral duties, and a "full-time approved supply pastor" is one who devotes his whole time to such duties.

In Decision No. 26, of course, I think the Council did not perform its proper function nor meet its responsibility, as I think it is not in this Decision.

I do not mean in anything I have said to suggest that the General Conference does not have the right to define these or any other words it uses in its enactments, because, of course, it does. But when it does not, in a case that is properly before us as the majority admit this one is, I think we should.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop William T. Watkins at Memphis Annual Conference, June 8, 1958, Relating to the Powers and Duties of an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications may withhold recommendation for ordination or full connection in the Annual Conference of a candidate who, in its judgment, has been unfaithful to his ministerial vows.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following statement was received by the secretary of the Judicial Council:

"At the opening session of Memphis Conference, at Lambuth College Chapel, June 3rd, 1958, Reverend H. W. Rash, Chairman of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, presented a written statement to Bishop Wm. T. Watkins, Presiding, as follows:

" 'In the light of what is required of all men seeking Admission on Trial, the Board of Ministerial Training is seriously concerned over the flagrant violation of these vows taken previously by other members of the Annual Conference.

" 'Bishop, Since the Church requires all candidates for License to Preach and all candidates for Admission on Trial to agree to abstain from the use of tobacco, your Board of Ministerial Training has directed me as its Chairman to ask you to rule upon the recommendation of men for Ordination who use tobacco.

" 'We request your ruling now that we may be able to proceed with the business of our Board.' "

After some questioning concerning the matter by Bishop Watkins and from the floor, Bishop Watkins stated that he would submit his ruling in writing tomorrow.

"At the Second seession of the Conference, Wednesday morning, June 4th, 1958, Bishop Watkins submitted this ruling in writing:

" 'Since the Annual Conference may not admit or advance a candidate for membership except upon the recommendation of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, it follows that failure to recommend completely and finally estops the progress of a candidate toward full membership in an Annual Conference. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications had the right and duty to inquire into the character and habits of life of a candidate for conference membership and to make recommendation accordingly but when this has been done and the candidate has been admitted to membership the authority of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is definitely delimited thereby. For the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to estop a candidate on the ground of a broken promise ultimately has all the legal effects of a trial, conviction and expulsion. Trial, conviction and the assessing of a penalty is clearly a judicial process to be exercised by the Church courts alone. For the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to exercise such power is to deny the conference member the right to trial. While the Church is not without legal remedy in a case of this kind, the exercise of judicial functions by the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is not that remedy.'

Signed:
W. T. Watkins,
June 4th, 1958.

"The above is certified to be true and exact copying of the quoted request and the written ruling of Bishop W. T. Watkins.

"Witness my hand this Twelfth day of July, 1958.

Wm. M. O'Donnell
Conference Secretary
Memphis Conference, SEJ"

Accompanying this statement was a syllabus of the case submitted by Bishop Watkins in elaboration and support of his ruling.

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Watkins is properly before the Judicial Council by the provisions of Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline.

Analysis

The question upon which Bishop Watkins was asked to rule, as we understand it from the context both of the request for a ruling and the bishop's ruling itself is: "May a Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications refuse to recommend for ordination and full membership in the Annual Conference candidates who have violated vows which they have promised and are by the Discipline required to observe?" or, quoting directly from the syllabus submitted by the bishop, "Stripped of excess verbiage the essence of the case is: Where an undergraduate is known to have violated his pledge to abstain from the use of tobacco, does the Board of Ministerial Training have the authority to hold up his ordination under these circumstances?"

The ruling of Bishop Watkins in this case seems to be contained in the second sentence of his statement, "The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications had the right and duty to inquire into the character and habits of life of a candidate for conference membership and to make recommendation accordingly but when this has been done and the candidate has been admitted to membership the authority of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is definitely delimited thereby." In his accompanying syllabus the bishop says, "The Board of Ministerial Training unquestionably has the responsibility of investigating the character as well as the qualifications of a candidate for admission on trial. But having made this investigation and recommended the candidate for admission on trial, the authority of the Board of Ministerial Training over the character of the candidate is at an end."

The Judicial Council, therefore, concludes that the question involves the authority and responsibility of an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in its relationship to "undergraduates" or "members on trial" and has no reference whatsoever to members of the conference in "full connection."

While the question as submitted has specific reference to the use of tobacco in violation of ministerial vows, the ruling of Bishop Watkins and the accompanying syllabus of this case rest upon a broader base and involve the powers and limitations of a Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in the recommendation of members on trial for ordination and full membership in the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 321 of the 1956 Discipline states:

"A member on trial is on probation as to his character, his preaching, and his competency as a pastor. During this period the church determines whether he is worthy of becoming a full member of the conference. A person on trial may be discontinued without any reflection on his character."

In setting forth the requirements of a candidate for "Admission into Full Connection" paragraph 341 of the 1956 Discipline states:

"A member on trial may be admitted into full connection in an Annual Conference by vote of its ministerial members, on recommendation of its Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, provided he shall have: . . ." Here follow the several qualifications for eligibility.

Paragraph 405 of the 1956 Discipline, in the section relating to the election and ordination of elders, states:

"No persons shall be elected to elder's orders except such as are of unquestionable moral character and genuine piety, sound in the fundamental doctrine of Christianity and faithful in the discharge of gospel duties."

Paragraphs 669-674 of the 1956 Discipline set forth the organization and duties of an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. Paragraph 671 states:

"The Board shall examine (a) all applicants for employment as approved supply pastors and (b) for admission on trial as to their fitness for the ministry, as provided in Paragraphs 314-18, 321-30, and shall make full inquiry as to the fitness of (c) candidates for admission into full connection. This must include an examination as to character, habits of life, conversion, call to the ministry, Christian experience, evangelistic and missionary concern. . . . The Board shall also report recommendations concerning: (d) candidates for ordination as deacons; (e) candidates for ordination as elders. . . ."

From these references to the Discipline it is clear that the General Conference in enacting this legislation intended to confer upon an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications not only exacting responsibilities but also broad discretionary powers. It must stand at the door of the Annual Conference to enlist and recommend such persons as are worthy of being placed on trial in the Annual Conference and who meet the standards and requirements of the Discipline.

But its responsibility does not end when candidates are received on trial; it must continue (Paragraph 670) "to provide guidance and counsel to them in their training and preparation for the ministry." The probationary period ended, the Discipline requires an even more careful and scrutinizing examination of the candidate by the Board, designating the many areas which "must" be included in such examination. (Par. 671.) The very first of these are "character" and "habits of life."

It must be remembered that a member "on trial" in an Annual Conference stands in an entirely different relationship to the conference than does the member "in full connection." During his trial period he stands outside the doors of the Annual Conference, with no right to participate or vote in its proceedings, awaiting the final decision of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Annual Conference as to his fitness and qualifications for full membership. He does not possess the right to demand that judicial procedures be carried out should the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications or the Annual Conference decide that he is unfitted for conference membership because of his failure in any aspect of his ministerial life such as those specifically mentioned in the Discipline: "character," "habits of life," "competency as a pastor," etc. As stated in Paragraph 321 of the Discipline "A person on trial may be discontinued without any reflection on his character."

In the light of these facts we must conclude that the Discipline confers upon an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications broad discretionary powers in judging candidates for full membership in the Annual Conference and for ordination, and that such Board is given both the authority and the responsibility for recommending or declining to recommend such candidates on the basis of facts and information at its command. We further conclude that no basic right of a candidate who is on trial is being denied him by a decision of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications that he should not be recommended for full membership in the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications may refuse to recommend for ordination or full connection in the Annual Conference a candidate who, in its judgment, has violated his ministerial vows, including the promise to abstain from the use of tobacco.

It necessarily follows that the ruling of Bishop Watkins in this case must be and is hereby reversed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Jose L. Valencia Anent the Eligibility of Mr. Lingkod A. Juane to serve as a Lay Member of the Philippines Annual Conference in Its Session of March 4-8, 1959

DIGEST OF DECISION

On the basis of factual data supplied him, Bishop Valencia ruled that Lingkod A. Juane had been a member of The Methodist Church for four years prior to election as a lay member of the Philippines Annual Conference and was therefore eligible to sit as a lay member of the Philippines Annual Conference in its 1959 session. His ruling is hereby affirmed.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On April 27, 1959, Bishop Jose L. Valencia of the Philippines Central Conference, acting under the mandate of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Three, Article VII, being para. 40 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church, reported to the Judicial Council a decision rendered in the Philippines Annual Conference during its session in Knox Memorial Methodist Church, Manila, Philippines, March 4-8, 1959. This report showed the following:

"The Quarterly Conference of Knox Memorial Methodist Church in its fourth regular session on November 9, 1958, elected Mr. Lingkod A. Juane lay delegate to the Philippines Annual Conference. On January 11, 1959, in a regular monthly Official Board meeting of Knox Memorial Methodist Church, the question was raised as to whether Mr. Lingkod A. Juane was eligible to serve as lay delegate under the membership requirement of Paragraph 21, Article 1, of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

"The matter was referred by the Official Board of Knox Memorial Methodist Church to the District Superintendent of the Manila District, as Chairman of the Quarterly Conference which elected Mr. Lingkod A. Juane. The District Superintendent looked into the records of Knox Memorial Methodist Church and, in a Special Session of the Quarterly Conference of said church held on February 15, 1959, ruled . . . that, on the basis of records obtainable, Mr. Lingkod

A. Juane failed to meet the membership requirement and was, therefore, ineligible to serve as lay delegate to the Philippines Annual Conference.

"Mr. Lingkod A. Juane, on February 28, 1959, presented the Presiding Bishop of the Philippines Annual Conference an appeal . . . from the Ruling of the District Superintendent of the Manila District based on the claim that, the records of Knox Memoiral Methodist Church being incomplete, there was additional evidence which might alter the Ruling of the District Superintendent.

"Evidence presented to Bishop Valencia indicated the membership rolls of Knox Memorial Methodist Church to be very incomplete. While the name of Mr. Lingkod A. Juane first appeared on a non-official roster (the Knox Memorial Methodist Church seeming to have no permanent church register as required by Par. 131(1) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church) entitled 'Revised List of Members for 1955,' evidence was submitted indicating that Mr. Juane could on the basis of this unofficial record have been a member of The Methodist Church as early as March, 1954, the beginning of the Annual Conference year of 1954-55 for the Philippines Annual Conference. Other testimony submitted attested that Mr. Juane had been an active participant and presumably a member of the Knox Memorial Methodist Church as early as 1952-53."

On the basis of his investigations Bishop Valencia ruled that:

"Said records, being incomplete, are insufficient to warrant the disqualification of Mr. Lingkod A. Juane. Also there is information and evidence which make it reasonable to conclude that Mr. Juane was a member of The Methodist Church for four years prior to his election on November 9, 1958. This information and evidence are attached.

"In view of the fact that Mr. Lingkod A. Juane was elected properly by the fourth regular session of the Quarterly Conference of Knox Memorial Methodist Church on November 9, 1958, I recognize the action of said Quarterly Conference which elected Mr. Lingkod A. Juane; and, therefore, rule Mr. Juane eligible to sit as lay member of the Philippines Annual Conference in its Twenty-First Regular Session, March 4-8, 1959."

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council assumes jurisdiction in this matter under the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Four, Article II, Section 3, being Par. 43(3) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church, and Par. 909 of said Discipline.

Analysis

The statement of facts indicates that the District Superintendent of the Manila District, Philippines Annual Conference, was acting under authority vested in him and made a legal ruling under Par. 362(14) of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church, that a legal appeal was taken from his ruling under provisions of the same Paragraph, and that the president of said conference, Bishop Jose L. Valencia, made a legal ruling under the provisions of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Three, Article VII, being Par. 40 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

On the basis of factual information Bishop Valencia ruled the evidence indicated that, prior to his election on November 9, 1958, as a lay member of the Philippines Annual Conference, Mr. Lingkod A. Juane had been a member of The Methodist Church for four years and was consequently eligible to sit as a lay member of said conference in its twenty-first regular session, March 4-8, 1959.

Although the matters involved may well have become moot through the lapse of time and by circumstances, nevertheless accepting the factual evidence upon which the decision is based and acting under Par. 909 of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church, the Judicial Council considers the decision of Bishop Jose L. Valencia in this matter to be correct.

Decision

Therefore the ruling of Bishop Jose L. Valencia is affirmed.

In Re: Lay Representation of Pastoral Charges in Annual Conferences

DIGEST OF DECISION

A pastoral charge served by three ministers or traveling preachers, only one of whom is in full connection with the Annual Conference within the territorial boundaries of which the pastoral charge is situated, is entitled to elect only one of its lay members to represent it as a member of such Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council received a communication from J. Mark Odenwelder, Associate Secretary of the Newark Annual Conference, stating that the following action was taken by the Newark Annual Conference on Thursday, June 11, 1959, at Madison, New Jersey, to-wit:

"The Westfield Methodist Church located in the town of Westfield, New Jersey, is on the Southern District of the Newark Conference.

"This parish has 2,043 members.

"There are three fully ordained elders in this parish—one a member of the Newark Conference and the two assistants, members of the West Virginia and Oregon Conferences, respectively.

"We ask for a declaratory decision by the Judicial Council to determine whether this church with three elders in three different conferences is entitled to two lay delegates to Annual Conference. The two assistant ministers are part time ministers working toward a Ph.D. degree."

Jurisdiction

Under subsection 8, Paragraph 914 of the 1956 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the Newark Annual Conference.

Analysis

Article I of Section VII, Division One, codified as Paragraph 21 of the 1956 Discipline, among other things, provides as follows:

"The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. Each pastoral charge served by more than one minister in full connection shall be entitled to two lay members."

The second sentence was added to the Constitution of the Church by Amendment X. The General Conference of 1956 proposed the amendment to the members of the several Annual Conferences. The amendment was ratified by a vote of two-thirds majority of all the members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting and the language was a part of the Constitution of the Church at the time of the meeting of the Newark Annual Conference held June 10 to 14, 1959.

Chapter III of Part III of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church, consisting of Paragraphs 321 to 385, inclusive, among other things, establishes the procedure by which a candidate for the traveling ministry may be first admitted on trial into an Annual Conference and thereafter admitted into full connection in an Annual Conference. Section 341 provides that a member on trial may, upon certain conditions, be admitted "into full connection in an Annual Conference by vote of its ministerial members on recommendation of its Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications."

It is clear that only pastoral charges situated within the territorial limits of an Annual Conference are entitled to lay representation in such Annual Conferences and that the obvious intention of those adopting the tenth amendment to the Constitution of the Church was to more nearly equalize lay and ministerial membership in Annual Conferences.

We note that in the first sentence of the quoted language of the Constitution it is provided that an Annual Conference is composed of such traveling ministers as are "in full connection with it," while the second sentence added by the amendment provides for an additional lay member when the pastoral charge is served by more than one minister "in full connection." Unless these words in the added sentence refer to membership in the Annual Conference in which the pastoral charge is situated, they have no meaning since, taken alone, they do not indicate with which body of the Church the minister, or ministers, shall be "in full connection." Taken in context, these words and the language of the amendment mean that each pastoral charge served by more than one minister in full connection with the Annual Conference in which the pastoral charge is situated shall be entitled to be represented by two lay members in such Annual Conference.

Since the Westfield Methodist Church is served by only one minister or traveling preacher who is in full connection with the Newark Conference, it is not entitled to be represented by two lay members in that Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that Westfield Methodist Church, served by three ministers or traveling preachers, only one of whom is in full connection with the Newark Annual Conference, is entitled to elect and be represented by only one lay member in that Annual Conference.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Nolan B. Harmon That Funds in the Permanent Trust Fund of the South Carolina Annual Conference Are Disposable by That Annual Conference

DIGEST OF DECISION

Funds in the Permanent Fund of an Annual Conference are disposable by an Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A request to Bishop Harmon for a Ruling by the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Annual Conference set out the following facts:

"In 1955, The Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Annual Conference, by authority of the Conference and for investment purposes, for $25,000, purchased a tract of mountain land, containing about 300 acres, in Greenville County, South Carolina, with a view of its division between the Board of Education for Youth Camp purposes and a conference controlled corporation for development as a Methodist retreat. The Board of Trustees were to be repaid from the sale of lots by the Retreat Corporation (1955 Journal, pages 47, 82, 150).

"So far as the records indicate the funds so used were not taken from the funds of any specific trust, but were part of the general trust funds in the hands of the conference Board of Trustees.

"Division of the land between the Board of Education and the Retreat Corporation having proven to be impossible because of the needs of the Youth Camp project, the Board of Trustees so reported to the 1956 Annual Conference (Journal, pp. 151-152), which adopted the following resolution:

" 'Substitute Motion—R. B. Herbert moved as a substitute that the Board of Trustees be instructed to transfer a deed to the 300 acres in exchange for a mortgage of $25,000 on the property—that the Trustees be further instructed to reduce the face of the mortgage by such sums as they be legally free to allocate to the Board of Education. The motion was adopted.' (Id. P. 48.)

"Pursuant to the substitute motion of Dr. Herbert the Board of Trustees executed a deed for the 300 acres of land to the Board of Education in exchange for a mortgage of $25,000 on the property."

The questions then submitted were:

"(1) Is the definition of the permanent fund of the Annual Conference, 1956 Discipline, Sec. 711, the same as the definition of the permanent fund of the General Conference in the 1956 Discipline, Sec. 709?

"(2) Do all trust funds of the Annual Conference Trustees which are not known to belong to some specific trust belong to the permanent fund?

"(3) Can the trust funds in the hands of the Trustees which are not known to belong to a specific trust be legally allocated to reduce the face of the real estate mortgage executed by the Board of Education to the Board of Trustees?

"(4) Can the trust funds in the hands of the Trustees which are not known to belong to a specific trust be legally disposed of by the Annual Conference?"

The Bishop ruled that the answer to question (1) was No and to the others was Yes.

The Ruling was duly reported in writing to the Council by the Bishop.

Jurisdiction

We take jurisdiction under Par. 909.

Analysis

In answering the questions Bishop Harmon used the following language, which we adopt as our own:

"The first question by the Conference Board of Trustees: 'Is the definition of the permanent fund of the Annual Conference, 1956 Discipline, Section 711, the same as the definition of the permanent fund of the General Conference in the 1956 Discipline, Section 709?'

"The answer is, No. The permanent fund referred to in Paragraph 709 of the Discipline of 1956 is to be held and administered by the Board of Trustees of The (entire) Methodist Church. The permanent fund—and the words 'permanent fund' are in quotation marks in the book of Discipline as referred to in Paragraph 711, Subsection 2—refer to the permanent fund of an Annual Conference. If the questioners really intend to ask whether the words 'which shall be kept intact forever,' now applied to the permanent fund of the Annual Conference, I should again say, No. No such regulation regarding what may be called the permanent fund of any Annual Conference has been promulgated by the General Conference. . . .

"In response to Question Two of the Trustees: 'Do all trust funds of the Annual Conference Trustees which are not known to belong to some specific trust belong to the permanent fund?'

"I answer, Yes. The Discipline specifically states in Paragraph 711, Subsection 2, with reference to the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference, that these 'Trustees' 'shall receive, collect, and hold in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any and all donations, bequests, and devises of any kind or character, real or personal, that may be given, devised, bequeathed, or conveyed to the said board or to the Annual Conference as such for any benevolent, charitable, or religious purpose, and shall administer the same and the income therefrom in accordance with the directions of the donor, trustor, or testator, . . .' Then the Discipline definitely adds: 'When the use to be made of any such donation, bequest, or devise is not otherwise designated, the same shall be added to and become a part of the "Permanent Fund" of the Annual Conference.'

"In response to Question Three of the Trustees: 'Can the trust funds in the hands of the Trustees which are not known to belong to a specific trust be legally allocated to reduce the face of the real estate mortgage executed by the Board of Education to the Board of Trustees?'

"The answer is, Yes. Where trust funds have been put in the hands of Trustees and they do not belong to a specific trust, the Annual Conference will have full power to direct the Trustees as to the use and administration of such funds. The paragraph above referred to, 711, Sub-Section 2, states that 'The said corporation (that is, the Trustees) shall receive, collect, and hold in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any and all donations, etc.' The same paragraph states that the administration of any trust funds given shall be done 'in accordance with the directions of the donor, trustor, or testator, . . . under the direction of the Annual Conference.' The entire paragraph ends by stating that 'Funds committed to this board may be invested by it only in collateral that is amply secured and after such investments have been approved by the said board or its agency or committee charged with such investment, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.'

"These three references to Conference control (which I show above in italics), spanning as they do the whole paragraph, indicated plainly that the Annual Conference itself is able to direct such trust funds as are in the hands of the Trustees when these are not known to belong to a specific trust.

"In response to Question Four of the Trustees: 'Can the trust funds in the hands of the Trustees which are not known to belong to a specific trust be legally disposed of by the Annual Conference?'

"The answer is, Yes. The reasons for this are given in the response to Question Three. An Annual Conference is entirely competent to manage its own funds and dispose of these as it sees fit, provided that in so doing it does not breach a trust, that is to say, break an understanding or stipulation, established by a grantor when said grantor's funds are turned over to the Annual Conference."

That Bishop Harmon's ruling is correct is further indicated by the General Conference having restricted the use of the principal of its own Permanent Fund without requiring all undesignated gifts to be put in such Fund, whereas, the use of the principal of an Annual Conference Permanent Fund is not restricted though all undesignated gifts to an Annual Conference or its Board of Trustees must be put in such Fund. (See Paragraphs 705, 709 and 711 of the 1956 Discipline.)

It only remains for us to add that it would seem that an Annual Conference's Permanent Fund should not be used for current expenses of the Conference. The word "Permanent" in the Disciplinary description of such Fund should at least be given the effect that the moneys therein be used consonantly with that description.

We, therefore, affirm the ruling of Bishop Nolan B. Harmon.

Decision

All undesignated gifts to the Board of Trustees of an Annual Conference or to an Annual Conference are to be added to that Conference's Permanent Fund, and are disposable by that Conference.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop William T. Watkins in Connection with Action Taken by the Board of Trustees of Kentucky Wesleyan College

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Board of Trustees of Kentucky Wesleyan College by a vote of 10 to 8 at their regular meeting on May 25, 1959, voted to "accept the resignation of Dr. Oscar W. Lever as President of Kentucky Wesleyan College effective May 31, 1959, but with his salary to continue until August 31, 1959." At a recessed meeting held on June 1, 1959, a motion to rescind this action was introduced, points of order against its eligibility were raised by several members of the Board, which were denied by the Chairman who thereafter declared the former action rescinded by a vote of 12 to 8. The total membership of the Board was 25. The Board then adjourned to meet in Louisville on June 16th to further consider the matter.

The questions asked of Bishop William T. Watkins as President of the Louisville and Kentucky Annual Conferences were:

1. "Was the action of the Board in rescinding on June 1, 1959, the action of the Board on May 25th, legal and of effect?"

2. "What is the legal status of Dr. Oscar W. Lever in relationship to Kentucky Wesleyan College as a result of this action?"

The Louisville and Kentucky Annual Conferences have placed all Boards or other subsidiary agencies under "the rules of the previous General Conferences insofar as they apply, otherwise Robert's Rules of Order, Revised."

In accordance with the secretary's record of the meeting of the Board of Trustees of May 25, 1959, in its final paragraph it stated: "Upon motion of Hightower, duly seconded and duly passed, the Chairman declared the Board of Trustees recessed until June 1, 1959, at 10 A.M."

At the subsequent meeting on June 16th a resolution giving Dr. Lever a conditional tenure of one year in office was passed by a vote of 19 to 4.

In Bishop Watkins' ruling he stated: "Of course the Board at its May 25th meeting knew that it did not have before it a resignation from the President."

The Judicial Council thereafter received under date of October 9, 1959, a letter from John O. Gross, the General Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church stating that "on Tuesday, Oct. 6th, Dr. Oscar W. Lever retired as President of Kentucky Wesleyan College."

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Watkins is properly before the Judicial Council in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 909 of the 1956 Discipline.

Decision

In view of the above letter from John O. Gross we consider the matter moot and now deem no further action on our part necessary.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Clement D. Rockey in the Indus River Annual Conference of the Election of U. B. Ernest as Ministerial Delegate to the General Conference and the Central Conference of Southern Asia

DIGEST OF DECISION

In determining the eligibility of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference for election as ministerial delegate to the General Conference or Central Conference under Article IV, Section VII, Division Two of the Constitution, his years as a traveling preacher may be counted from the date of his admission on trial.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council received from Bishop Clement D. Rockey, the Resident Bishop of the West Pakistan Area of The Methodist Church in Southern Asia, a syllabus concerning a ruling on a question of law made by him in the Indus River Annual Conference. This syllabus contained the following facts:

"1. At the first meeting of the Indus River Annual Conference in Lahore on Saturday, September 5, 1959, a ministerial member of the Conference requested a ruling from the presiding Bishop, Clement D. Rockey, on the eligibility of the Rev. U. B. Ernest to be elected as the ministerial delegate to the General Conference meeting in Denver, Col., in 1960, and to the Central Conference of Southern Asia meeting in Hyderabad, India, in December-January, 1960-1961.

"2. The pertinent dates concerning the Conference record of U. B. Ernest are: (1) that he was admitted on trial in the Indus River Annual Conference on October 21, 1954; (2) that he was admitted into full connection in the Indus River Annual Conference on September 21, 1956; (3) that at the session of the Indus River Annual Conference in September, 1959, he was a member in full connection and good standing.

"3. At the meeting of the Indus River Annual Conference on September 7, 1959, prior to the time set for the election of the ministerial delegate to the General Conference, Bishop Rockey ruled that U. B. Ernest was eligible for election as ministerial delegate to the General Conference and the Central Conference.

"4. U. B. Ernest was elected on September 7, 1959, by the ministerial members of the Indus River Annual Conference as the ministerial delegate to the General Conference and the Central Conference of Southern Asia."

The ruling of Bishop Rockey was as follows:

"Article IV, Paragraph 24 of the Constitution (Discipline of 1956) states that 'such delegates shall have been traveling preachers . . . in The Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election; and are in full connection with the Annual Conference electing them when elected and at the time of holding the General, Jurisdictional or Central Conferences.'

"The question can be answered only by ascertaining when a person becomes a TRAVELING PREACHER, i.e., from what date his four years of conference membership required for eligibility must be reckoned.

"On p. 739 of the Discipline of 1956 the definition of Terms thus defines Traveling Preacher: 'A Minister who has been admitted on trial or into full connection in an Annual Conference.' This is followed by a NOTE giving the historical background for this definition.

"Paragraph 321 (Discipline of 1956) states 'The first step into the traveling ministry of The Methodist Church is Admission on Trial into an Annual Conference.'

"In its Decision No. 124 the Judicial Council states 'that a preacher On Trial in an Annual Conference cannot serve as Lay Delegate in a Central Conference.' This clearly indicates that a person who enters the Annual Conference on Trial by that very act ceases to be a layman and thereby becomes a traveling preacher.

"In the Digest of Decision No. 120 of the Judicial Council it is stated: 'The time of his election as such a Delegate is immaterial, his eligibility to serve as such Delegate at the time the Jurisdictional Conference meets being the determining factor as to the validity of his election.' This decision does not alter the situation in the present case but merely aids to the period that lapses between his becoming a Traveling Preacher and serving as the duly elected delegate after having been a traveling preacher a full five years from the time of his entering the traveling ministry, and his election as delegate.

"It is therefore the decision of the Presiding Bishop that Rev. U. B. Ernest has satisfied the conditions that govern his election and, if elected, will be duly qualified to serve as Ministerial Delegate of the Indus River Conference at the General Conference of April-May, 1960, to be held in Denver, Col., and subsequently thereto at the Central Conference to be held in Hyderabad, India, in Dec., 1960, provided at the time of these conferences he is a member of the Indus River Conference.

September 7, 1959. /s/ Clement D. Rockey"

Jurisdiction

Assuming that the request for a ruling was submitted to Bishop Rockey in writing and that his ruling is to be recorded in the Journal of the Annual Conference, this matter is properly before the Judicial Council under Paragraphs 40 and 909.

Analysis

Bishop Rockey in his ruling quoted the significant part of Article IV, Section VII, Division Two of the Constitution (Par. 24) which states that ministerial delegates to the General Conference and the Central Conference shall meet three requirements of eligibility: 1, They "shall have been traveling preachers in the constituent churches forming this union or in The Methodist Church, for at least four years next preceding their election"; 2, They must be "in full connection with the Annual Conference which elected them at the time of the holding of the General Conference and the Central Conference."

U. B. Ernest obviously met requirement number 2 and it is to be assumed that he will meet requirement number 3. The request for a ruling, therefore, must have been concerned with requirement number 1, with whether or not U. B. Ernest had been a traveling preacher for the four years next preceding his election. He had not been in full connection four years but he had been admitted on trial nearly five years before the time of election. The basic question in this case, therefore, is whether or not his years on trial are to be included in his years as a traveling preacher.

They certainly are. The definition of a traveling preacher in Par. 2100, which Bishop Rockey quoted, as "A minister who has been admitted on trial or into full connection in an annual conference," while not an official part of the Discipline, has all the weight of Methodist history and usage behind it. On page 14 of "The Doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church" of 1808 the question is asked: "Who shall compose the General Conference

. . . ?" and the answer given: "The General Conference shall be composed of one member for every five members of each Annual Conference, to be appointed either by seniority or choice, at the discretion of such Annual Conference: Yet so that such representatives shall have traveled at least four full calendar years from the time that they were received on trial by an Annual Conference, and are in full connection at the time of holding the Conference." At the first moment of his connection with an Annual Conference a Methodist preacher ceases to be "local" and becomes "traveling."

Two paragraphs from the 1956 Discipline will give further illustration to this point. Par. 328 states, "While a member is on trial, the Annual Conference alone has jurisdiction over his authority to preach. His continuance on trial shall be equivalent to the renewal of his license to preach. If he be discontinued, he becomes a local preacher." As long as he is on trial he is not a "local" but a "traveling preacher."

Paragraph 1618(2) and other pension legislation recognize that the annuity claim of a traveling preacher in full connection begins with the date of his admission on trial in an Annual Conference. On that date he assumed the responsibilities and privileges of a traveling preacher.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that, in determining the eligibility of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference for election as a ministerial delegate to the General Conference and the Central Conference under Article IV, Section VII, Division Two of the Constitution, years on trial may be counted in the requirement that he shall have been a traveling preacher "for at least four years next preceding" his election; that U. B. Ernest was, therefore, eligible for such election at the meeting of the Indus River Annual Conference on September 7, 1959. The ruling of Bishop Rockey is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Petition of the Council of Bishops Requesting the Judicial Council to Reconsider and Re-hear the Question Which Was Presented to the Council and Answered by Its Opinion No. 114

DIGEST OF OPINION

The Petition of the Council of Bishops for a Re-hearing is denied.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On November 19, 1954, the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church requested a Declaratory Decision from the Judicial Council as to the constitutionality of the provision in Par. 431, Sec. 7 of the 1952 Discipline which requires the consent of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference before he can be transferred to another Annual Conference.

On July 29, 1955, the Judicial Council rendered its Declaratory Decision on the question submitted to it by the Council of Bishops. This decision became Decision No. 114 of the Judicial Council.

On December 2, 1958, the Council of Bishops requested the Judicial Council to "reconsider and re-hear the following question:

"Is Par. 431, Sec. 7 of the Discipline adopted by statutory legislation of the General Conference opposed to and in conflict with the Constitution of The Methodist Church and Par. 34, Art. I of the Constitution?"

On October 15, 1959, a Committee from the Council of Bishops, consisting of Bishops Nolan B. Harmon, Frederick B. Newell and Eugene M. Frank presented to the Judicial Council a printed brief and oral arguments in support of the Petition of the Council of Bishops to reconsider and re-hear.

Decision

After careful consideration of the Petition to Re-hear submitted by the Council of Bishops and the reasons advanced in support thereof it is the opinion of this Council that the Petition to Re-hear should be, and the same is, hereby denied.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members including Probationers, whose present re-tion to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year which the man was received into full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a iestion about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that ie name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been transferred to a ission conference or removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Bold-ice type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the lumn in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information hich will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Of-
